Miss Schneider Is Married

Miss Frances Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Schneider of Glenada and Ernest Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Richardson, were married in St. Paul's Episcopal church of Salem on August 25 by the Rev. George H. Swift.

The altar was decorated with white gladioli and the church with red gladioli and palms. The bride wore a brown ensemble and her bouquet was of tall-tan roses, white stocks and baby breath.

Mrs. Kay Merrill was matron of honor and carried white gladioli and pink rosebuds. Mr. Delmar Gwynn was best man.

The reception was held at the home of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Kay Merrill served the wedding cake and Mrs. S. A. McDowell poured.

The bride wore a moss green sport suit with brown accessories for her going away costume.

On the honeymoon trip through the Canadian Rockies and down the coast of Washington and Oregon the young couple will be at home at 695 1/2 North 17th street on September 3.

Bridge Luncheon On Friday

Mrs. Ralph Campbell was hostess for a delightful informal luncheon Friday afternoon at her Center street home. Competing bridge was in play following the luncheon and summer flowers provided the decorative notes.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Lawrence Lister, Mrs. Kenneth Bell, Mrs. C. W. Parker, Mrs. L. O. Arena, Mrs. William B. Collins, Mrs. Ralph Heath, Mrs. Ralph Jackson, Mrs. David Cameron and Mrs. Campbell.

Being warmly welcomed in the capital are Mr. and Mrs. E. Rosne Melton of Houston, Texas. Mrs. Melton is the former Rose Lind Van Winkle. They are the guests of her father, Attorney General L. H. Van Winkle and plan to remain in the capital for another week. This is the first time Mr. and Mrs. Melton have returned to Salem since their marriage three years ago.

RECENT BRIDE—Mrs. Kenneth J. Gollit, who was Miss Hattie Ramp before her marriage on August 18 in Brooks. (Jesten-Miller photo)

Miss Bergh
