Diz Dean Returns to Hurl Win

Gives 6 Hits To Nip Brooks

Slow but Effective as He Gets 3-2 Decision; Reds Win Doubleheader

National League

Brooklyn 78 57 .578 Chicago 66 70 .485
Pittsburgh 61 84 .424 Boston 64 79 .451
St. Louis 68 62 .523 Philadel. 43 90 .323

BROOKLYN, Sept. 11.—(AP)—Diz Dean, a smarter but slower man, returned to the National league today and whipped the second place Brooklyn Dodgers 3 to 2 on six hits after the Chicago Cubs had captured the opener 8 to 5.

Dean, who voluntarily went to Tulsa of the Texas league last June in an effort to recover from his arm trouble, rejoined the Cubs on Sunday and this was his first start.

He relied almost exclusively on a sidearm motion that baffled the Brooklyn and showed good control except for a temporary lapse in the sixth, when he issued two of his four walks. Occasionally he tried a "fast" one, a shadow of the blazing ball he used to throw, and most of the time he got away with it. Pete Reiser hit one out of the park in the seventh.

First game:
Chicago 8 14 2
Brooklyn 5 8 2
Passeau and Collins; Wyatt, Tamulis (5), Head (7), Carleton (9), and Phelps.
Second game:
Chicago 3 6 1
Brooklyn 2 6 1
J. Dean and Todd; Grasm, Carleton (8) and Franks.

Reds Sweep Pair
BOSTON, Sept. 11.—(AP)—With their pitching aces, Bucky Walters and Paul Derringer, operating effectively, the Cincinnati Reds said their 1940 farewells to the Boston Bees today by sweeping a doubleheader, 8-0 and 3-1. It was the 19th victory for each of those star boxmen.

First game:
Cincinnati 8 10 0
Boston 0 4 1
Walters and Lombardi; Balvo, Piechota (8) and Berres, Broski (6).
Second game:
Cincinnati 3 8 0
Boston 1 6 1
Derringer and Wilson; Strincevich and Berres.

Cards Comb Giants
NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—(AP)—The big bats of the St. Louis Cardinals spelled them a double victory over the New York Giants today 7 to 4 and 2 to 2.
First game:
St. Louis 7 17 2
New York 4 7 1
Shoun and Owen; Melton, Dea (2), Jolner (9), and Danning.
Second game:
St. Louis 3 10 0
New York 2 9 0
McGe, Lanier (9) and Padgett, Owen (8); Gumbert and Odea.

Bucs Batter Phils
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 11.—(AP)—Held in check for eight innings, Pittsburgh combined a walk and five straight hits to turn what had been a tight game into a decisive 9 to 3 victory over the Phillies today.
Pittsburgh 9 12 1
Philadelphia 3 13 3
Brown and Lopez; Pearson, Beck (9) and Atwood.

Out for Season

Tommy Henrich, New York Yankee's outfielder, cuts with gusto at a New York hospital and dangles from the toes of his injured leg a "no visitors" sign. That's just his sense of humor at work. He can have visitors. Tommy was injured in a game at Boston last week and he's out for the rest of the season.

Old Diz Dean, who has been tolling in the Texas circuit most of the summer, returned a margin of the $185,000 investment he made to the Chicago Cubs by yesterday twirling a 3-2 win over second-place Brooklyn in his first start since returning to Chicago.

Bowling Scores

Ray Adolph, bowling with Pades, had high single game of 219 and high series of 608 as city league bowling opened on the Perfection alleys last night.

OSC Loses Two Gridders

CORVALLIS, Sept. 11.—(AP)—The Oregon State college football squad lost two players to the national guard today. Coach Lon Stiner said the men were Len Bartholdi, left tackle, and Harvey Cutts, center. Both have been ordered into the army for a year.

Now it can be told: Bunny Bennett, the little scooter who so many times during the past four years sparked Willamette football teams when late in the game they were in need of a little highlife, had one advantage when he matriculated at the Bearcat school. . . . Though handicapped by lack of size, Bunny made up for it in experience.

Bennett was a five-year high school man, a secret he kept to himself so well that he became found out even when he became all-city back in his last year at Jefferson high of Portland. . . . Little Bunny played for Vern Wadsworth, bespectacled football coach, who has chosen Oregon to shift to Jefferson of Portland, where he again enrolled as a yearling.

Among Salem high graduates who are going to have a try at collegiate athletics are: Big Vern Wadsworth, bespectacled football guard, who has chosen Oregon to shift to Jefferson of Portland, where he again enrolled as a yearling.

Bill Butte, football tackle and state high school wrestling champ, who enters Oregon State. . . . Bill Shinn, halfback on the grid and half-miler on the cinders who has decided on Willamette, as has the Williams twins, Leland and Leonard. . . . Russ Satter, all-state basketball center, who is trying to make up his mind between OSC and Willamette.

Commission Answers

After several chats with sportsmen, this department a year ago carried an open letter to the Oregon state game commission in which we asked the reason for closing the China pheasant season in the valley when, to us and them, pheasants seemed to be more numerous than ever before. . . . This year the commission volunteers its reasons before we have had opportunity to question it.

"Two important factors entered into the decision of the Oregon state game commission in decreasing that there be no shooting of pheasants in the valley again this year," reads the exclusive dispatch to this department. . . . "First: Under state game laws it is questionable if the commission has power to order a controlled season on China pheasants."

Mechanical Kill High

Reason number two, states the dispatch, is that a survey conducted in the valley by the Oregon Cooperative Wildlife Research unit discloses that, while the pheasant population has been on the increase, the higher population has not yet reached a stage where an open season would be justified. . . . Predators, mechanical kill and legal kill, according to the report of Arthur S. Einarson, director of the research unit, have taken a tremendous toll.

According to the report of this research, output of the two hatcheries in the valley, in about replaces birds lost by mechanical kill (birds hit by autos on highways, birds flying into fences and power lines, etc.), and hence the farms cannot be relied upon entirely for increasing returns. . . . The report indicates that an open season will be declared until the goal sought, one bird to every five acres, is reached. . . . In two years, the report says, the population has increased from one pheasant to every 12 acres, to one bird to every 7 to 8 acres.

Scott Is Coach At Independence

INDEPENDENCE.—Ray Scott of Corvallis, outstanding varsity football and varsity baseball man of the Oregon State college team of 1935-36, was Wednesday elected head coach at Independence high.

Scott replaces Loren Mort, who resigned last week to accept a coaching position at Leslie junior high in Salem. Coach Scott graduated from OSC in 1937. For the past two years he has been coaching and teaching at Prairie City high school. He resigned last spring to work for his master's degree, but when offered the Independence position decided to accept.

In recommending Scott his former superintendent writes: "Mr. Scott is a young man of the finest character, keeps himself in excellent health and practices all that a good program of physical education strives to produce. His excellent character serves as an inspiration and example to all the boys in his charge." Scott is married and has a daughter three years old. This summer he played first base on the champion softball team at Corvallis.

Detroit Climbs Back to Top By Half Game Over Cleveland

DETROIT, Sept. 11.—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers leveled an 18-hit attack to overcome some wobbly pitching today as they defeated the Boston Red Sox, 11 to 7, and vaulted back into first place in the wildest American league pennant race in years.

Coupled with the split at Cleveland between the Indians and the New York Yankees, the victory left the Tigers a half-game and four percentage points up on the Tribesmen and a full game and seven percentage points on the champion Yankees, who open a three game series here tomorrow.

Detroit left 14 men stranded on the bases while Boston left 11 in the two hour and fifty minute struggle which was played in finger-numbing cold beneath heavy clouds before 3,984 customers. Fred Hutchinson, the $70,000 rookie of 1939 who has never pitched consistently for Detroit, started for the Tigers but gave up in the third after allowing five hits in two frames.

Wilson, Fleming (4), Heving (5), Galehouse (7), Johnson (8) and Fox; Hutchinson, Gorica (3), McKain (7) and Sullivan.

Idaho Grid Camp Begins Activity

MOSCOW, Idaho, Sept. 11.—(AP)—The University of Idaho football camp came to life today as the majority of Coach Ted Bank's early fall practice trainees arrived on the campus and settled down in their quarters for the year.

Irving Kono pka, sophomore tackle from Milwaukee, Wis., was late in arriving due to a motorcycle accident in Sheridan, Wyoming, Sunday afternoon. He is expected tomorrow. Vic Berlin, Tunk-Hannock, Pa., end, motorbiked his way west and reached Moscow Sunday.

Quarterback hopes were strengthened by the arrival Tuesday of Mac Beal and Ronald Harris after a summer working in California. Beal, who was a letterman with the 1938 Idaho club, did not play last year. Practice plans call for the drawing of equipment tomorrow for a morning workout. Limbering up drills with some work on plays will occupy the balance of the Hadley week.
