News Views Speeded to Statesman by Its Two Photo Services

BETTER AT TYPING—Their nimbleness of fingers didn't help these speed typists when they put on skates at Toronto, where they've been competing in a typewriting contest. Left to right, rear: Margie Richards, Chicago; Jean Goethe, Miami, Fla.; Bernice Abar, Duluth, Minn.; Falling: Celeste Raterman of Knoxville, Tenn.; Fallen: Gertrud Molinuis of Regina, Canada. James H. R. Cromwell gave the trophy awarded for experiness on the keys.

Linked by their love of music, Leopold Stokowski (left) is shown with Jr., in St. Matthew's Church, Bedductor led his famous American Youth Orchestra, touring South American ford, N. Y. The bride is the former arranged a carnival of Brazilian music for his guest.

This is the bridal photo of Mrs. David Rockefeller, who married the youngest son of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., in St. Matthew's Church, Bedductor led his famous American Youth Orchestra, touring South American ford, N. Y. The bride is the former arranged a carnival of Brazilian music for his guest.

N. Y.

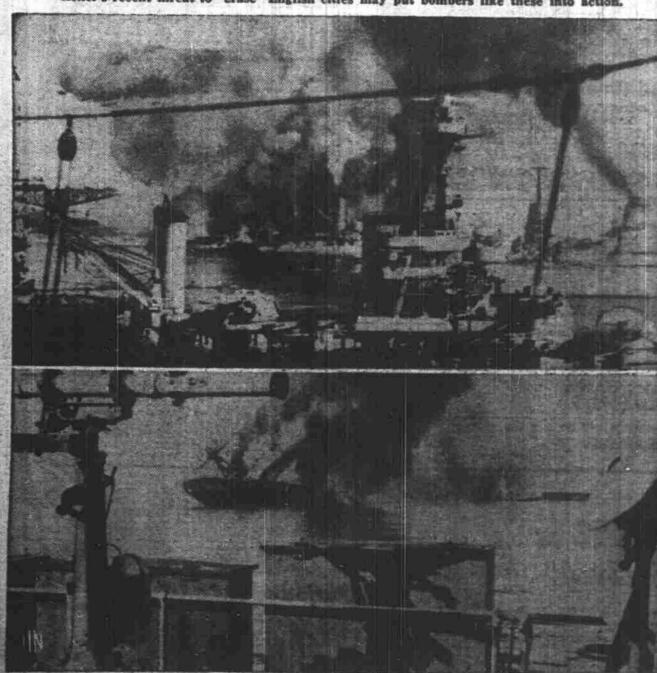

Mrs. David Rockefeller This is the bridal photo of Mrs.

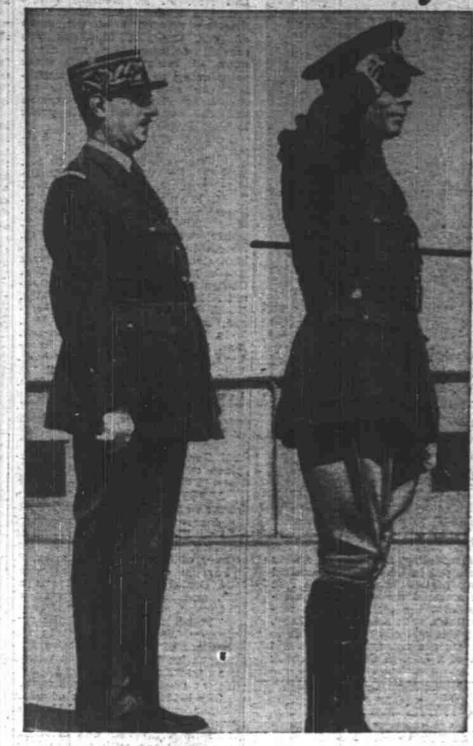

THE CHASE TO 'ERASE'—England-bound is this Dornier DC215, a German source states.

Hitler's recent threat to "erase" English cities may put bombers like these into action.

These pictures show the actual sea battle between British and French warships at Mers-el-Kehir, off the French African naval base at Oran, Algeria. The fight wrecked the French fleet, thwarting Hitler's attempt to gain sea power. Top, the battle in full progress, ending with seven of France's crack warships sunk or badly damaged. Bottom, the 22,189-ton French battleship Bretagne slowly sinks after a terrific bombardment at close quarters.

ALLIES IN BRITAIN—Leader of the people he calls the "Free Frenchmen" who choose to fight on against the Nazis, Gen. Charles DeGaulie (left) stands with Britain's King George, taking salute from French soldiers in England.

FROM GROUND UP—Rough as the ride was, Glenn L. Martin (left), airplane manufacturer, didn't mind, since the tractor in which he and a workman sit helped break ground for a huge Martin Aircraft Co. addition at Baltimore.

BABY LOVE MAMA?—It's a long stretch down there, for Minnie, the giraffe at Chicago's Brookfield soo, to reach that newly-arrived bundle of spots. The baby giraffe weighs between 156 and 175 nounds, is six and a half feet tall.

This picture of the present King Michael of Rumania was taken when the 18-year-old boy recently visited his mother, Princess Helen of Greece, who had divorced Michael's father, Carol, then king. Princess Helen was invited to return to Rumania by Premier Antonescu, himself, according to report.

Vatican, arrives at New York aboard the Excelibur, silent about his mission. Taylor, who underwent

A St. Louis attorney, Jacob Mark Lashley, elected president of the American Bar Association, addresses his colleagues in convention at Philadelphia.

Mary Pickford As in 1917, Mary Pickford, the ailent screen star, spends much of her time these days knitting and donating her services for the American Red Cross in its European war work. Mary is shown in her Hollywood home knitting for the Red Cross.

Once again New York hotel residents witness an apparent window ledge suicide attempt resulting in a pall for firemen, left nets, police and psychiatrists. Earl J. McBride of Dormont, Pa., kept police and firemen busy for some time balancing perilously from the window sill of his eighth-floor room, threatening to jump. He barricaded himself in the room and hurled furniture to the street. Later he surrendered to police and was taken to a hospital for observation.

Helene Chadwick lent screen star, who died in Hollywood after a long illness. The 41-year-old actress once earned $2,000 a week. She was born at Chadwick, N. Y., a small town named after her father.

Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, draft dodger No. 1 of the World war, is shown center, in federal court in New York after a hearing on a new plea for freedom. In a writ Bergdoll contended that he should be released under an executive order issued by President Wilson in 1920 limiting the sentence of draft dodgers to 18 months. Bergdoll is serving five years on the charge and two years on a charge of desertion.