

Society

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Delbeck Lively spent the weekend in Portland and Friday night motor-ed to Timberline Lodge where they met Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kay Bishop (Elaine Conner) who have just arrived from the east. They were married on September 23. Saturday the Livelys attended the Oregon-Washington game. Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Pauls also went to Portland Saturday to attend the game.

Miss Mary Flathers entertained informally at dinner at the home of her parents on Glenn Creek Drive before the Salem-Milwaukee game Friday night. Guests were Miss Helen Wilhelm, Miss Marjorie Barker, Miss Betty Mercer, Miss Gertrude Schless and Miss Betty Krebs.

FEET FIRST into campus affairs come five Salem freshmen coeds all wearing the almost universal wooden shoes. Left to right are: Jean Templeton, Shirley Schott, Margaret Sehon, Suzanne Wilson and Betty Wirth. (Statesman photo.)

FRIENDLY CHAT—House presidents discuss rush week, which ends next Saturday. Left to right are Rowena Upjohn, Delta Phi, Laura Lee Tate, Alpha Phi Alpha, and Jessie Mae Ruhndorf, Beta Chi. (Statesman photo.)

Miss George Don't Look Now.. Will Marry This Week

Highlight of the week will be the wedding of Miss Isabel George and Mr. Donald C. Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cannon, which will be an event of Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock in the fireplace room of the First Presbyterian church. Rev. W. Irvin Williams will officiate before members of the immediate family.

Mrs. Joe B. Davis of Portland will be her sister's matron of honor and Mr. Robert Cannon will act as best man for his brother. A number of guests have been invited to the reception for which Dr. and Mrs. Joe B. Davis will be hosts at the C. C. Cannon home in Morningglade.

Presiding at the altar will be Mrs. C. L. George, Mrs. W. E. Vincent, Mrs. Winifred Pettijohn and Mrs. Dell Pettijohn. Assisting in the service will be Miss Kreta Jans, Miss Rosemary Snyder, Miss Patricia Cannon, Mrs. Robert C. Cannon, Mrs. W. P. George, Mrs. Charles Claggett and Mrs. F. J. Officer.

but . . . when your hero comes back from training camp you may not recognize the fellow you expect to be wearing a snappy uniform. You see, some time ago we heard that they wouldn't be wearing those beautiful blue dress uniforms we had such hopes for. And now, worst blow of all, we hear that they will be wearing wrapped leggings, and that the officers won't even be carrying sabers unless they already own one. Oh me! No glamour at all, suppose they'll soon be melting up the gold braid to make bullets.

They'll be teaching us . . . We just heard that the high school youngsters in the Crescendo club, who had a series of concerts last year, made so much money they paid all expenses and then had enough left to bundle the crowd into a bus and treat them to the Richard Crooks concert in Portland. And here we grownups always struggle along with concerts, lucky if we make expenses.

Hallo again . . . We hear about Mildred Roberts Daves, former Salem girl who made an initial appearance in a violin concert at the 50th anniversary of the Jacksonville, Fla., music club. Press notices praise her to the skies. No fair . . . advertising. Bernice Lee, who officiates in the obstetrical department of the Salem General hospital, carried off ladies' prize at the Salem Saddle club's dress-up party on Tuesday night when she appeared as an Indian squaw, with a papoose on her back.

Flatterers . . . Two Willamette freshmen, Mark Hatfield and Leonard Steinbock, stopped us on the campus, to ask if we were a member of the college Willkie-for-President club. Secretly, we might have been about 40 years ago . . . but then maybe they didn't notice our gray hairs.

She's good enough . . . for Seattle. Josephine Albert Spaulding has been asked to sing at a musicale reception given on Monday for Dr. and Mrs. Nikolai Scholoff at the Olympic hotel. Some 1500 persons have been asked to meet the director of the Seattle Symphony. On the 18th she'll sing for the students of Eastern Oregon College of Education at LaGrande.

Just press a button . . . and you can have any form of entertainment you want. Several bureaus for furnishing talent have been organized. The state will furnish you a world events speaker, the medical society a speaker on health and now the high school will bring forth a musician to suit your club's taste . . . Maxine Buren.

Betrothal Is Announced At Tea

Paper gold rings hidden in the hearts of calm lilies revealed the betrothal of Miss Lila Millard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett B. Millard, to Mr. Elbert W. Ross of Seattle, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ross of Minneapolis, at a tea given by Mrs. Millard and her daughter Saturday afternoon. The wedding will take place during the Christmas holidays.

Over seventy guests called during the afternoon at the Millard home on D street. Miss Civilla Reeder and Miss Jean Driggs held baskets filled with the lilies and presented them to the guests at the door.

Miss Millard wore a stunning black crepe dinner gown embellished with a roman stripe girle and a corsage of tallman roses. Mrs. Millard wore a black gown and gardenias.

The bride-elect's three sisters were present for the announcement tea. They are Mrs. E. C. Ordway of Eugene (Marguerite Millard), Mrs. Tim Bjelland of Woodburn (Neva Millard) and Miss Evangeline Millard.

Assisting about the living room were Miss May Rauch, Miss Lella Johnson, Miss Etta White and Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a bouquet of gold and white flowers guarded by matching tapers. Miss Ada Ross, Miss Beryl Holt, Miss Frances Hodge of Portland and Mrs. Jack Hudson of Portland presided at the urns.

Serving were Miss Ruth Stover, Mrs. Rae Pinson, Mrs. George Rhoten and Mrs. Earl Cooley. Miss Gladys Humphreys was in charge of the serving room.

Miss Millard attended Willamette university where she was a member of Beta Chi sorority and graduated from the University of Oregon. She is a member of the Parrish junior high school faculty.

Mr. Ross is a graduate of Grinnell college in Iowa and attended Northwestern Law school. He is a consulting engineer.

Brides-Elect Reveal Plans

Weddings continue to hold the social spotlight with several scheduled for late October.

Sauvrey-Selander

Miss Genevra Selander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Selander will be married on Wednesday, October 23 to Mr. Max Sauvrey of Gervonville, Virginia, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Sauvrey of Oelwein, Iowa.

The ceremony will be read in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church with Rev. George H. Swift officiating in the presence of members of the two families.

Mrs. Harry Clark (Phyllis Selander) will be her sister's honor attendant and Mr. Clark will serve as best man for Mr. Sauvrey.

Mr. Sauvrey will arrive from the south on October 18 and he will take his bride back to Virginia to reside.

Miss Virginia Bird Becomes Bride of Lt. Edwin Fronk on Saturday

All white was chosen for the wedding of Miss Virginia Bird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Curtis Bird, and Lieutenant Edwin Alexander Fronk, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Fronk of Eugene, formerly of Salem, which was solemnized Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church.

It was at 2 o'clock that Rev. W. Irvin Williams performed the ceremony. Professor Frank E. Churchill played several organ numbers before the wedding.

Woodwardia fern and two large bouquets of white chrysanthemums banked the altar with two wrought iron candelabras holding white tapers arranged in the center.

On the arm of her father the bride proceeded down the aisle to the altar. She was striking in her handsome ivory chiffon velvet gown designed with a flared skirt extending into a train. The skirt was gathered onto a low waist line and the shirred bodice was made with a high neckline and long sleeves.

Her fingertip length tulle veil was made in three tiers and fell from a pleated halo of tulle edged in seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of orchids, gardenias and freesias. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Before the bride walked her attendants, Miss Marian Smith, Miss Lyle Bogardus of Portland, Miss Gwen Piggott of Seattle, Miss Shirley Bird of Albany, bridesmaids, Mrs. William Booth of Portland, matron of honor, and little Miss Tanna Dee Bird flower girl.

gan and Mrs. Claude Murphy. Lt. Fronk will take his bride to Fort Lewis to reside. For traveling the bride chose a gold silk frock with brown accessories.

Mrs. Fronk is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Alpha Chi Omega. Lt. Fronk attended Oregon State college and is a member of Sigma Nu.

Men will have their linings on "men's night" at the meeting of Chadwick Chapter, Order of Eastern Star on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in Masonic temple. Guests have been invited from Silverton and Mill City. After the meeting a social hour will follow with Mr. Oral Lemmon in charge of refreshments and Mr. Harold Phillips of the entertainment committee.

Mrs. Claude Murphy and Mrs. Charles Kinter are leaving today for Corvallis where they will attend the grand temple of Pythian Sisters the first part of the week.

Mrs. Brunk Will Have Birthday

An at home will be given to honor the 80th birthday of Mrs. Mary F. Brunk, at the Methodist Old People's home, 1825 Center street, on Wednesday between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock. Mrs. E. C. VanSlyke is to greet guests at the door, and Mrs. Thomas Brunk, Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford and Mrs. M. C. Pindley.

Pouring the first hour will be Mrs. David Wright and Mrs. Albert C. Smith, and the second hour, Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford and Mrs. M. C. Pindley.

Serving and assisting in the dining room will be Mrs. Estill Brunk, Mrs. Kenneth M. Klein, Mrs. Loretta Neely, Miss Clara Koenig, Mrs. Clara Valencourt, Mrs. Verda Johnson, Mrs. Edna Troutdale, Mrs. Mary Brunk and Mrs. Ethel M. Niles will receive. A special guest at the affair will be Mrs. Frances Branch, another resident of the Old People's home, who will celebrate her 80th birthday on Tuesday.

Mrs. Brunk's friends are being invited through the press to call at the home and greet her.

At a party for which Mrs. Alec Jones was hostess Saturday night announcement was made of the marriage of Miss Wilda Callahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Callahan.

Attendants in White

They wore identical frocks of white velveteen fashioned with flared skirts, tight-fitting bodices embellished with brass buttons from the waistline to the shoulder, Peter Pan collars and sleeves extending just below the elbow. They carried matching velveteen muffs centered with a scarlet begonia. Their ribbon turbans were caught with a bow in the back from which fell long streamers. The flower girl carried a basket of begonias and wore a white bow turban.

Mr. Maurice Williams of Portland stood with Lt. Fronk and seating the guests were Lt. Patrick Cassidy and Lt. John Mitchell of Fort Lewis, Mr. Charles Barclay and Mr. Delmar Gwynn.

Mrs. Bird wore a smart black crepe afternoon frock and silver foxes for her daughter's wedding. Her pet hat was of felt and her corsage was of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Fronk wore black sheer frock and matching coat and hat with gardenias and rosebud corsage to attend her son's marriage.

After the wedding a reception was held at the Bird home on Hoyt street. The serving table was covered with an ivory cloth and centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums and pink carnations flanked by white tapers. The table appointments were of crystal and silver.

To Live at Fort Lewis

Mrs. Percy Kelly was in charge of the dining room and presiding at the bride's table were Mrs. Fred Ward, Mrs. Frank Pate of Albany, Mrs. C. K. Lo-

FROM DISTANT CITIES come wives of new Willamette faculty members. On the left is Mrs. Maurice Brenson, just arrived from Chicago, where she was married six weeks ago. Center is Mrs. H. C. Hutchins and son David, recently from Chicago. The ball of fluff in the foreground is a neighbor dog. On the right is Mrs. Murco Ringnald who came from Los Angeles. (Statesman photo.)

Three-Links Has Luncheon

The Three Link club met in IOOF hall Friday for a 1 o'clock luncheon. Mrs. Goldie Kyle presided.

The committee in charge was Miss Grace Robertson and Mrs. Gertrude Kirkpatrick.

Guests present from Jefferson were Mrs. Ida L. Hartley, Mrs. Margaret Teahuton, Mrs. Laura Thomas, Mrs. Hattie Goin, Mrs. Ida Wells, Mrs. Bertha Carl, Mrs. Bessie Porter, Mrs. Maud Epley, Mrs. Lettie Haskins of Ingleswood, Calif., and Mrs. Louise King of Los Angeles.

Members present were Mrs. Ida Hochstetler, Mrs. Louise Loveland, Mrs. Belle Carlson, Mrs. J. Ferrine, Mrs. Glenn Adams, Mrs. W. Claude, Mrs. Marie F. Robertson, Mrs. Jennie Martin, Mrs. Floresta Lachele, Mrs. Laura

Noyes, Mrs. Desalene Eberhard, Mrs. Rhoda Nagel, Mrs. Victoria Stuffer, Mrs. Lella Ohlsen, Mrs. Ruth Hornaday, Mrs. Coral McNeille, Mrs. Carrie Jennings, Mrs. Anna Hunsaker, Mrs. Clara Shields, Mrs. Nellie Curtis, Mrs. Eva Keene, Mrs. Elise Papenfus, Mrs. Ida M. Steele, and Mrs. Lella Vinson.

Miss Jean and Miss Betty Anunson, the latter a freshman at the University of Oregon, and a group of their friends were entertained at the F. S. Anunson home Friday night before leaving Saturday for the Oregon-Washington game. Miss Ruth Anunson who is attending Oregon State college is spending the weekend at the home of her parents.

A tea will be given at the Salem Woman's clubhouse on Tuesday from 2 to 5 o'clock by the Salem chapter of American War Mothers honoring the ladies auxiliaries of the patriotic orders.

Mrs. Devers Is Hostess

Mrs. J. M. Devers was hostess to members of her club at a dessert bridge Friday afternoon at her home on Market street. Autumn flowers provided the decorative note.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Will Hutchins, Mrs. Percy Kelly and Mrs. Clifton Mudd, additional guests. Mrs. John H. Carlin, Mrs. L. C. McLeod, Mrs. John H. Bagley, Mrs. Charles A. Cole, Mrs. Oscar Cutler, Mrs. Kenneth Murdoch, Mrs. James McFarland, Mrs. H. S. Swart and Mrs. Walter Spaulding.

Bagleys Honored At Party

Lt. and Mrs. John H. Bagley, Jr., were the honor guests at an au revoir dinner party last night when Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eggstaff entertained at their home on D street.

Lt. Bagley will report today at Fort Lewis for a two week's classification school with the 29th engineers, USA. Later Lt. Bagley will be with the engineers in Portland.

Dinner guests were Lt. and Mrs. Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Murdoch, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wynkoop, Dr. Gordon Steinberg and Mr. and Mrs. Eggstaff.

Later in the evening the Eggstaffs and the Wynkoops invited a group of additional guests to an informal party at the former's home. Autumn flowers in varied shades were used about the guest rooms.

Honoring Lt. and Mrs. Bagley were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berg, Mr. and Mrs. LaVerna Young, Mr. and Mrs. James Hardie, Mr. and Mrs. J. Deane Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Murdoch, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Lear, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hinz, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Krueger, Mr. and Mrs. Bjarne Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Felke, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Elvin, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hille, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Wynkoop and Mr. and Mrs. Eggstaff.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted McCloskey of Arlington and their two children, Diana and Jimmy, will arrive in the capital Tuesday for several days' stay at the Earl Snell home. The McCloskeys are leaving the end of the week for an eastern trip which will take them to Detroit, Washington, DC, and New York. The children will remain at the Snell home while the McCloskeys are away.

The Delta Delta Delta alumnae will meet Monday night at the home of Mrs. H. R. Woodburn, route 4, at 7:30 o'clock. New alumnae in the capital are asked to contact Mrs. Woodburn, 22486, or Mrs. Robert Sprague, 21327.