Mr. and Mrs. George Grimps have traded their dairy business in Hubbard for a farm seven miles out of Hermiston.

Foster Bridge Is Near Completion

ALBANY—Work of filling in the approaches of the new Foster bridge is being pushed by the county court, and the bridge will soon be ready for traffic.

The structure, which cost approximately $15,000 has been constructed to accommodate the heavy logging traffic from the Quartzville territory and which comes through Foster to Sweet Home and on down the valley. The new bridge is said to be the heaviest in the county.

Japanese Church Has Family Meeting

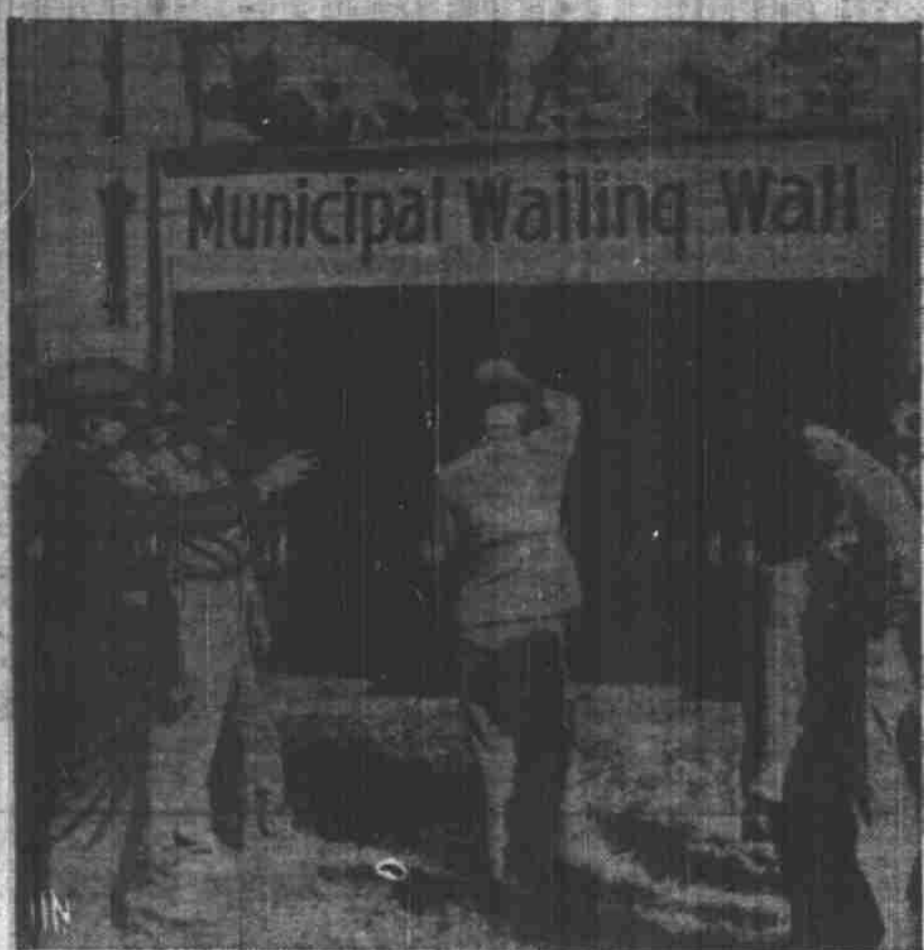

HAZEL GREEN—Today the Japanese church will meet at the Ogura home for a family meeting. Rev. Y. Tsuda of Seattle is guest speaker.

Saturday night Rev. Hayashi of Portland will be guest speaker for the Young Peoples' league. Rev. Y. Tsuda will be honor guest to a fellowship dinner in the Sunday school unit Saturday night preceding a meeting in the church for the adult group.

Sunday Service Gets Change at Union Hill

UNION HILL—There will be no church services and Sunday school at the Union Hill grange hall on Sunday instead, those interested will meet at the grange hall at 9:30 a. m. Sunday and will go from there to the Christian church and Sunday school at Stayton.

Wailing Wall for Politicians

Mayor Ernest Vinson, of Rogers, Ark., has devised this means of allowing disgruntled voters and ex-office holders to publicly do their wailing. The mayor demonstrates the correct technique to be used at the wailing wall he had set up on Main Street, town's most important thoroughfare.

This Was Home

This man had a home—But it's gone today. Head bandaged, injured and forlorn, he leaves his home in London after a Nazi bombing party paid a visit.

St. Mary's Makes Plans for Party

SHAW—On Sunday night November 2 a Thanksgiving card party will be given in the schoolhouse by the members of St. Mary's parish. Cards and various games of amusement will be the diversion. Supper will be served by the ladies of the parish. Everyone is cordially invited.

Mrs. J. M. Bradshaw of Bryant, SD, arrived Saturday morning for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. B. D. Wells and family.

Linn County Has High Percentage

ALBANY—Two Lebanon men, Earl Eugene Miller, and Clarence Zuercher, drew the first numbers in the draft lottery, of Linn county registrants. Miller's number was 158 and Zuercher's 192. Lloyd Bowers, Shedd, was third and Lloyd H. Hilliker, Albany, was fourth. While the Lebanon men held the first and second numbers to be drawn, the others did not follow in suits, but were among the first 100 drawn.

Eighteen Linn county men held serial numbers in the first 100 drawn. Due to the fact that the 17 numbers drawn following the first two, were higher than those listed by the county board, the third Linn county man, Lloyd Hilliker, was number 19 in the drawing.

Of the first 18 to have their numbers drawn, six were from Albany, five from Lebanon, three from Sweet Home and one each from Holley, Tangent, Crabtree and Shedd.

Wheatland Women Have Party Given
