Offices Shut Up for Today
Clerk's Deputies Busy by Election; Licenses to Wed Issued 4
All Marion county offices, including departments of the circuit and county courts, will be closed today under legal holiday statutes governing election day. Deputies of County Clerk U. G. Boyer, however, will be occupied during most of the day with election administration in the election room of the courthouse.
Matters noted yesterday in local courts are as follows:
— Circuit Court — F. Loren Boulter vs. Bernice Boulter; divorce complaint adopted under duress. Plaintiff asks return of defendant's name, Bernice Boulter, married August 6, 1932, in Nebraska. State vs. Clary Campbell; transcript from Silverton justice court on charge of threatening to commit a felony. Hawkins and Roberts Building corporation vs. Kenneth G. Thompson; plaintiff's notice of hearing on motion to strike at 10 a.m. next Friday.

Recruiting Mark Broken in Oregon
The Oregon recruiting district sent local records to the enlistment office in Portland last week, breaking a record of 47 recruits in a 10-day period. The district is credited to the Oregon district last July. The colonel explained, however, that the district had twice the present personnel on duty at that time, and it was credited with the enlistments from part of the state of Idaho for July.
All but 68, who were enlisted at Salem, completed their applications and took the enlistment oath at the district headquarters in Portland last Friday. The 68 recruits, topped the list of district enlistments in the number recruited. Eugene and Medford, respectively, followed with 24 and 29, respectively.

68 Men Recruited At Salem Station
Army Takes 16 in Last Week, According to Lieutenant Ralph
The month of October produced a total of 68 men for the Salem army recruiting office. The fact that conscription is an actuality has caused the boys of Salem to think a great deal of what the army has to offer them that selective service does not. Lieutenant Ralph, recruiting officer, reports.
The following young men were enlisted last week at Salem: Kenneth W. Fischer and Frank J. Kasmerki for the Panama department; William R. Strawn and William H. Jones for the medical corps; Charles W. Chapman and Lawrence T. Coomb for the quartermaster corps; Kenneth V. Winagar, George L. Peabody, Wilbur H. Blythe, Elmer F. Plum, Keith M. Taylor, Cyril P. Lyons, Allen F. Colstrom, George H. Hallin and Edwin J. Busck for the air corps; Harry J. Skinner for the Philippines department.

Rail Revenues up Sixth Over 1938
Net Earnings of Steam Lines Increase by 38.16 per Cent
Revenues of all steam rail line operations in Oregon during the year 1939 increased $5,233,223 or 12.21 per cent over 1938. State Utilities, Commissioner Ormond R. Bean reported yesterday. Operating expenses increased resulting in an increase of net only $2,984,810 or 11.58 per cent. Earnings of $2,248,413 or 14.16 per cent over 1938. Taxes paid by these lines in Oregon amounted to $2,360,689.
The 24,229,766 tons of revenue freight hauled in Oregon in 1939 was an increase of 2,136,590 or 14.56 per cent over 1938 and was the largest in the past 10 years. Total revenue passengers carried increased 19,476 over 1938. During 1939 there were 3,677.55 miles of road operated in Oregon. Passenger revenue of electric lines, including bus and electric trolley operations of the Portland Traction company in Portland, amounted to $3,540,098 in 1939, an increase of $50,167 over 1938, while the total revenues earned increased $31,021 over 1938.
Total operating costs of these lines were reduced from $3,712,274 in 1938 to $3,626,217 in 1939, a decrease of $86,057 or 2.31 per cent.
This increase in operating revenue and large reduction in operating expenses caused the net revenue to increase from $950 in 1938 to $316,142 in 1939. Passenger car mileage decreased $68,910 or 6.14 per cent.
