

Fall Formal Dance Planned Saturday

MONMOUTH—The first all-school formal dance of this year at Oregon College of Education is scheduled for November 16. It is sponsored by the senior class. The theme is patriotic, to be worked out in a color scheme of decorations in red, white and blue.

Lillian Dahl of Monmouth is president of the class. Sylvia Gungott, Salem, and Harry W. Johns, Hillsboro, are co-general chairmen; Dorothy Smith, Eugene, program chairman; Dorothy Brown, Portland, invitations; Virginia Craven, Monmouth, decorations; Betty Mulkey, Knappa, music and Alma Penrod, Klamath Falls, publicity. An all-girls' orchestra from Portland has been engaged.

Patrons and patronesses are: Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Black, Miss Dora Scheffsky and Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Merriam.

Monmouth Man Votes Since Days Of General Grant

MONMOUTH—H. K. (Dad) Sicksafoose, born Feb. 14, 1854, at South Whitley, Indiana, and resident of Monmouth since 1897, has been voting for presidents of the United States since Ulysses S. Grant's second term in 1873. This adds up to 15 presidents or presidential candidates for whom Sicksafoose has cast his ballot.

He has been an Odd Fellow for 55 years, and in 1916 enjoyed a trip to Philadelphia as a state representative of the Grand lodge. He also attended the Sesqui-centennial celebration, and while visiting in the east was presented to President Coolidge in the White House.

His birthday each year is made a valentine party at the local high school which he served as janitor for more than 20 years.

Wesley Guild Has Christmas Plans

MOLALLA—Wesley Guild held its regular meeting at the home of Agnes M. Clifford with Mrs. W. L. Dunton acting as hostess with her. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Oliver Buxton and the program was given by a group of Camp Fire girls, Marilyn Buxton, Margaret Ann Brede, Lenore Schatzman, Shirley Miller, Ruth Blackford, Jean Dunton and Joan Peterkin, who gave a sketch of songs, readings and a beautiful ceremony honoring Armistice day.

It was decided to have only one meeting in both November and December and to have a Christmas party on the night of December 5. Material left by the Red Cross was distributed for making up by the members. Refreshments were served to 25 members.

Methodist Church Club Has Meeting

DALLAS—A meeting of Circle One of the First Methodist church was held recently at the home of Mrs. Theo Farington with Mrs. Christina Bennett as assistant hostess. Attractive arrangements of chrysanthemums and roses were used about the rooms.

A short business meeting was held with the remainder of the time spent in sewing. A pleasant tea hour followed.

Mrs. Phoebe Peterson was a guest and members present included Mrs. Cecil Riggs, Mrs. C. E. Jensen, Mrs. O. E. Holman, Mrs. Miriam Murray, Mrs. Walter Williams, Mrs. Arthur Davis, Mrs. H. F. Pemberton, Mr. E. H. Low, Mrs. C. W. Low and the two hostesses, Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. Farington.

Fire Department Acquires Ground

TURNER—The Turner fire department has leased a plot of ground from the Southern Pacific railroad company across the street north of the old creamery building for a building site for a fire station.

At a meeting Tuesday night Chief Albert Jensen was voted chairman of the construction committee and plans and specifications of the station were decided upon. It will be of frame structure, 22 by 29 feet, two-story, with full concrete floor. It was hoped to begin work soon.

J. Melville Broughton, Democrat, of Raleigh, is the new governor of North Carolina, having defeated Robert E. McNeill, Republican, of Statesville.

Labish Center News

LABISH CENTER—Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Aker entertained Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Russ, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burr, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lovre at a card party in their home this last week. The honorees went to Mrs. Russ.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Bibby and Irene, and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Russ and Barbara Jean went fishing on the Siletz river. Bibby returned with a good sized salmon.

Willard Hornschuch had to have two stitches taken in his upper lip after a piece of wood flew out of his wood lathe and left a deep cut.

Doris and Donna Lovre spent the holidays in Salem with their cousin. They attended the Armistice day football game.

Mrs. Joe Burr has been ill for several days and has not been able to attend her school at Lake Labish where she is the teacher.

Central Howell Has Community Affair
