

Miss Hottel To Marry Tonight

The Carrier Room of the First Methodist Episcopal church will be the setting for a simple but impressive ceremony tonight when Miss Martha Jane Hottel, daughter of Mrs. Beronice Hottel of Oregon City, becomes the bride of Mr. Farnell Kupper, son of Mrs. Fanny Kupper of Salem.

Dr. Daniel Schulze will read the service at 6 o'clock before the fireplace which will be banked with bouquets of chrysanthemums in the autumn shades and white tapers. Miss Beth DeLapp and Miss Constance Smart will sing a duet, "Until" before the bride and groom enter and Miss Eva Cochran will play the wedding marches.

The bride has chosen a white sheer floor length frock for her wedding. The dress is designed with bishop sleeves and a V-neckline with a full skirt gathered onto a shirred waistline. She will carry a cascade bouquet of yellow roses and yellow button chrysanthemums with streamers of the chrysanthemums. In her hair will be a wreath of yellow roses and chrysanthemums.

Miss Rhoda Williams of Seattle will arrive by plane today to be the bride's honor attendant. She will wear a floor length afternoon frock and carry a bouquet of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Reception will be held at the home of Mr. William Clemes of Eugene who will stand with Mr. Kupper as best man.

A reception for the wedding guests will follow the ceremony. Mrs. Hottel will wear a black frock and corsage of pink roses and white bouvardia for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Kupper will be gowned in blue and her corsage will be of pink roses and bouvardia.

The couple will leave on a short wedding trip and for travelling the bride will wear a soldier blue silk jersey frock with black accessories and coat and corsage of yellow roses.

Miss Hottel is a graduate of Willamette university and a member of Alpha Phi Alpha sorority. She is active in dramatic circles and a member of the Salem Civic players. Miss Hottel is librarian at the state hospital.

Mr. Kupper is also a graduate of Willamette university and a member of Alpha Psi Delta fraternity. He is now studying for his master's degree in education and psychology at Oregon State college.

Mrs. Marie Flint McCall has had as her guests since last weekend, Mrs. George M. Brown and daughter Elaine, and Miss Jean Bulck of Roseburg. The Browns returned on Monday, but Miss Bulck will remain for an indefinite stay.

Mothers Are Honored At Tea

A very lovely tea was served to mothers of members of the Home Economics club of Salem high school yesterday afternoon by the girls at "High Home" in the school building. The tea is an annual event.

Greeting guests at the door was Betty Takayama. Pat Lamb introduced to the line which included Faye Waldorf, club president, Mrs. T. W. Creech and Miss Eleanor Trinkle, Mrs. F. A. Waldorf and Mrs. Leona Johnson poured at a candlelit table which was centered by an arrangement of fruit and vegetables in a low bowl.

Audrey Brown was general chairman of the affair. Invitations were written and mailed by Dorothy Walker, Dorothy Mason, Helyn Larson, Hazel Wilson, Marie Martandon, Helen Zielsinski, Mary Casto and Tomako Nemojima.

Joanne Benson headed the committee in charge of the food and table decorations and Marjorie Brazier, Dorothy Mason, Emily Turner, Mary Casto, Priscilla Keith and Betty Takayama assisted her.

Betty Lou Evans was chairman of the serving committee which included Martha Francis, Ann Canby, Marjorie Ruth Rasmussen, Emily Turner, Mary Casto, Priscilla Keith and Betty Takayama assisted her.

Each month in the school year the Home Economics club has a project. The tea is November's activity, in December the club will have a bazaar and in January the tin-can dance for the benefit of the nursery school. Admission to the dance is a can or jar of something suitable to serve at the nursery school.

Five candidates for the Sweetheart of DeMolay, chosen at the last meeting of the boys' group, were Helen Brown, Pat Lamb, Carol Young, Jean Holtzman and Helen Cook. One will be chosen at the next meeting, and will be feted at a dance which will climax DeMolay day, December 9. Carmen Jean Vehrs was Sweetheart last year.

The Salem Council of Women's Organizations meeting has been postponed until Thursday, December 19 due to Thanksgiving.

Pattern

Household duties are a pleasure in this crisp, clean-cut housefrock. It's Pattern 4606 by Anne Adams and most becoming too, with that long, tapering panel down the front to give tall and narrowing lines. The sides of the bodice, cut on the bias for ease of fit, extend down to low points to make you smartly long-waisted. Use either long or short sleeves. And choose between the two collar versions—both nice in contrast. You might omit the belt, and have the front panel in contrast if you wish. Ric-rac or ruffling down the panel seams or edging the collar and sleeves is your gay. Use the accompanying Sewing Instructor for haste without waste!

Pattern 4606 is available in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 28, 32, 36, 40, 42 and 44. Size 26 takes 3 3/4 yards 35 inch fabric, 3/4 yard contrast and 1 1/2 yards ruffling.

Vancouver Rites Of Interest

A lovely autumn wedding was that of Miss Jessie Allene Moore to Mr. Theron Cammack, which took place on Sunday, November 10th at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the First Congregational church of Vancouver, Wash.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn W. Moore, formerly of Salem, now of Vancouver.

Mr. Moore gave his daughter in marriage and Rev. H. C. Stover of Salem performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was gowned in a dress of white slipper satin made on princess lines with a train, full bodice, lace yoke and sweetheart neckline. There were self covered buttons down the back and on the sleeves, which were shirred at the shoulders and terminated in points at the wrists. The full length veil of illusion was held by a wreath of orange blossoms.

Miss Barbara Davis of Portland was maid-of-honor and Miss Irving Moore, the sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of turquoise blue taffeta made with bouffant skirts and tiny basques, trimmed with pleating. Each carried a muff of shirred tulle with bows of white ribbon and gardeners' and wine ribbon bows in their hair.

Mr. Arby Pollard of Yakima was the best man and Mr. Samuel Delaney of Portland was head usher.

Gladys Edger of Salem played before the wedding and Mr. Clare McFarlane of Portland sang "All For You" and "Because."

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. Lora Groves cut the wedding cake and the members of the Salem Rebekah lodge cut the ices and presided at the urns.

The bride's mother wore a dinner gown of rust colored crepe. For going away the bride wore a blue dress and a black coat and hat and black accessories.

After a short wedding trip to Salem, the young couple will be at home in Yakima where Mr. Cammack is in business.

St. Anne's Guild Entertained

Mrs. Dolph Craig was hostess to members of St. Anne's Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church on Monday afternoon at her home on South Cottage street. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Breyman Boise, Mrs. David Eccles, Mrs. Robert Wilson and Mrs. Arthur Knox. Tea was served following the business meeting.

Those present were Mrs. Lynn Hies, Mrs. Charles Helzke, Mrs. Charles Huggins, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. Sidney Kromer, Mrs. Donald McCargar, Mrs. Hugh Morrow, Mrs. F. W. Poorman, Mrs. H. A. Rex, Mrs. Robert Sears, Mrs. Walter Socolofsky, Mrs. James Stone, Mrs. Richard Steiner, Mrs. James Walton, Mrs. George Weller, Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Mrs. Kenneth Bell, Mrs. Wilbur Berry, Mrs. Breyman Boise, Mrs. Raymond Bonesteel, Mrs. Robert Brennan, Mrs. Leslie Burdette, Mrs. Dolph Craig, Mrs. John J. Elliott, Mrs. Chester Zumwalt, Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, Mrs. Howard Wilson, Mrs. F. J. Bradshaw, and Mrs. Paul Hale.

Club Makes Plans For Banquet

Plans for the past president's banquet of the Salem Junior Woman's club were formulated at the meeting of the club on Monday night. The affair will be held at the Golden Pheasant on November 25 at 7 o'clock. Miss Helen Boardman is heading the committee on arrangements for the affair.

Two new members were voted into membership and included Mrs. C. H. Stevenson and Mrs. Lawrence Bradford. Reports of the Marion county federated Woman's club convention held at Lyons were given by Mrs. Joseph Tomkins and Mrs. Peter Foelkl.

The guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Walter Snyder, assistant superintendent of Salem schools, who gave an interesting talk on the "Psychology of Children."

Stuffings in Turkey Are Important

The turkey is as good as the stuffing, say many good cooks, and it's fun to have variety in stuffing. But when variety is given to the stuffing, there's often a family cry for good old fashioned sage dressing.

But you can satisfy your interest in new and unusual dressings, and at the same time keep the family pleased with their favorite old-fashioned flavor. Stuff the main cavity of the fowl with sage dressing, whatever recipe you prefer, then fill the smaller neck cavity with a fancy mixture.

Here are several good dressing recipes to use for the neck cavity, the parley and lemons give wonderful flavor.

AUMSVILLE—A wedding was solemnized Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Katie Meyer, when her daughter, Miss Katie Meyer, became the bride of Leonard Davenport of Toledo, with Rev. T. C. Mountain reading the service. The bride wore a velvet gown of soldier blue. She was attended by the groom's twin sister, Mrs. Allen Chatfield. The bride's brother, Carl Meyer, was best man.

Immediately after the service a shower was presented to the bride couple. Mr. and Mrs. Davenport will reside in Toledo where he is employed with the Johnson Lumber company.

for SCRATCHES CUTS - BURNS EASES PAIN KIP crumbs 1 cup diced turkey fat 1 cup turkey stock to moisten 1 cup chopped parsley 1/4 teaspoon salt

Crumble fat with meal or crumbs. Add other ingredients and mix well. This fills a 14-pound turkey, so cut down quantity if the neck cavity is all that's to be filled. This dressing should not be put in the bird the night before.

CORNMEAL AND OYSTER STUFFING Scald 1 cup white cornmeal, add 1 small can oysters, 1 large onion, minced, 1 tablespoon bacon fat and a loaf of stale bread, moistened in water. Add salt and pepper and a teaspoon poultry seasoning. Mix well.

PORK DRESSING Grind 1 pound lean pork, the heart, liver and gizzard of the turkey and add slices of bread that have been soaked in milk. Add salt, pepper, thyme and other seasonings to taste. Add 2 table-spoons butter, 1 onion and a few sprigs of parsley ground together. Mix well. This makes a good meat loaf when baked alone.

APRICOT STUFFING 1/2 cup chopped celery 1 tablespoon chopped parsley 1/2 pound dried apricots 2 cups breadcrumbs 1 1/4 cups cracker crumbs 1/2 teaspoon each salt and paprika

Mix well and stuff into turkey. For other dressing flavors consider: Sausage and sage, wild rice, sweet potato dressing, apple sauce and bread, celery root
