

ASSOCIATED PRESS

PICTURE NEWS

AND JUDITH AGREES—Frank McCormick, Cincinnati Reds' first baseman named the National League's most valuable player by the Baseball Writers' association, rates ace-high with Judith Ann, his daughter. They posed in New York.

MOUNTAIN HAS A WORD FOR IT—A large "Dux," meaning leader, shone from the mountain as Mussolini (front) reviewed Italian troops stationed near the Yugoslavian border.

HEART BELONGS TO DADDY—As if to bring London closer, Anne Khuner, 5, almost climbed into the "mike" during a N. Y. broadcast of British refugee children, to England.

TOO HOT BELOW—While northerners shiver in wintry cold, army flying cadets at Randolph field, Texas, zoom their 450-horsepower training plane up to 9,400 feet to get away from the heat. It was even too warm at 5,000 feet.

NEW TITLE—Meet golden-haired Mary Lee Abbott, 19-year-old New York debutante who was chosen as the 1940 "glamor girl" at a forum judged by N. Y. artists. She may—if she clicks—succeed to throne held by Brenda Frazier.

DRUM STICKS 'IN THE RAW'—With turkey days near, vigilant watch for coyotes is kept by herder and his dog at Forrest Benzen's huge turkey ranch near Loveland, Col.

MEMORY LINGERS ON—Though the election's over, a harvest of campaign circulars is still being reaped in Washington by Sen. Guy M. Gillette (D-Ia.), who's making a study of the "smear literature" variously distributed.

GOOD ENOUGH NOT TO EAT—Give Joseph Grunz, a New York chef, some spare time and this happens: stately called "Nature in Salt" and showing swans, cygnets and a woman. It appeared at chef's exposition in Grand Central Palace.

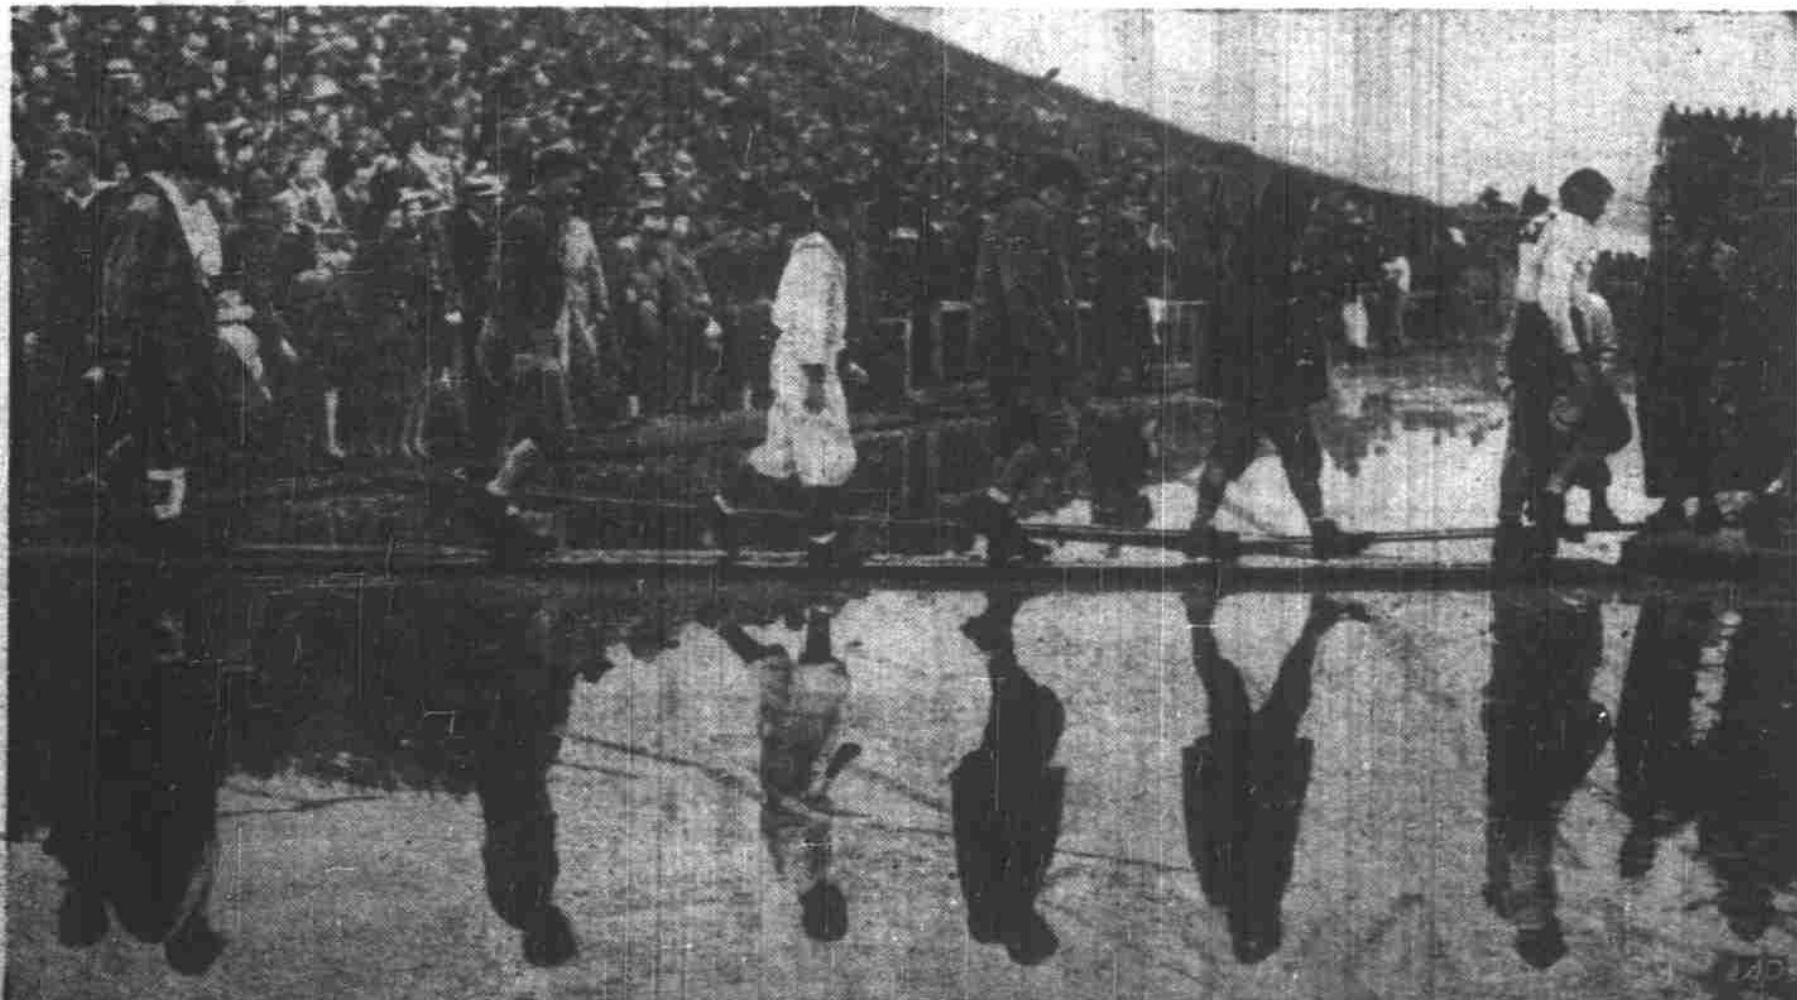

NAZI WATER PLANE—A 700-yard starting rope that's manipulated by a windlass is used for this amphibian glider, shown in Berlin by its inventor, Jachtmann (above).

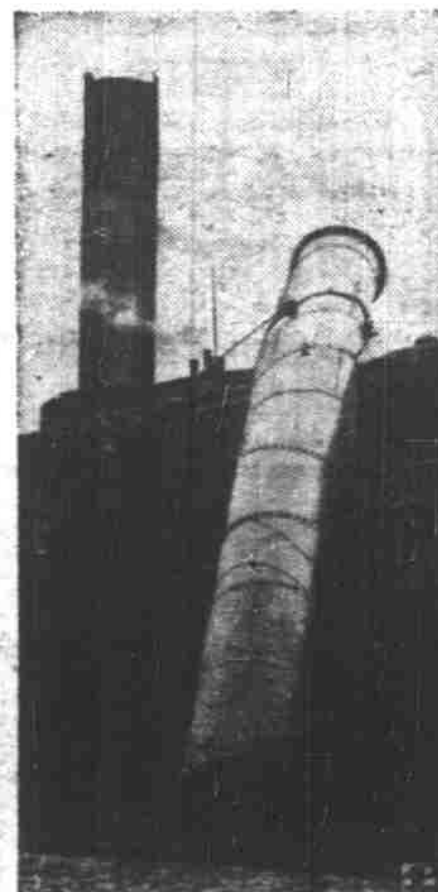

AIRMAN—Almost a youngster in aviation, Willy Messerschmitt, 42, is largely responsible for Germany's air might. He's been building airplanes since early in 1923.

THE LAST RIDE—Burial with full military honors was given "Chilena," gallant mare who died "in action" at the national horse show, N. Y. With her is Maj. Eduardo Yanez of Chile, who'd guided Chilena to many victories.

EVERYTHING'S DAMP BUT ENTHUSIASM—Walking the plank took on new meaning at Dallas, Tex., when the boys had to bridge a cinder path to get on field. This was the Texas A. and M. vs. Southern Methodist game won by A. and M., 19-7.

DOWN DRAFT—Only half a chimney stands where once a whole one thrust up into the sky. This is what the wind did to a wool scouring plant stack at Philadelphia.

SURE, THEY'VE GOT FRIENDS—As melancholy a pair as you'll find are "Sad" and "Sadder," spaniels belonging to Chester Swift, asst. superintendent of House press gallery.