

ASSOCIATED PRESS PICTURE NEWS

YOU'LL NEED SUPERLATIVES FOR THIS ONE—Some idea of the mammoth size of the new 4-engined U.S. army bombing plane B-19, said to be the largest ever built, is given here in the Douglas plant at Santa Monica, Cal., wherein the giant dwarfs the attack bombers clustered around it. It has a range of 7,000 miles.

BUSY—Nazi "trouble-shooter" in the Balkans is Franz von Papen (above), German ambassador to Turkey, who recently was called to Berlin for long chats with Hitler. He's rated a shrewd diplomat.

NEW GENERATION—Younger Roosevelt took the spotlight during their weekend visit to the White House. Sara, 6, the daughter of James Roosevelt, "mother" Franklin, 3rd, two-year-old son of Franklin Roosevelt, Jr., and the former Ethel duPont. The unwilling Scotty is Fala, the President's pet.

ARKANSAS TRAVELER—New Yorkers thought they were seeing things when John Friedberger dove into sight, along with other members of the U. of Arkansas football team. They were, all right! He's 6'8 1/2", reputedly the tallest glider.

CHOSEN—Philip Murray (above) of Pittsburgh is new president of the Congress of Industrial Organizations, named at Atlantic City to succeed John L. Lewis, resigned.

WOODMEN DIDN'T SPARE THE TREES—The future looks gay and glittering for these trees—part of the Pacific Northwest's annual harvest of Christmas trees now under way—and Dec. 25 will find them bowed down with tinsel, candles and colored ornaments. This harvest was on the J. Hofert land near Shelton, Wash. Trees ship to all parts of U.S.

IN STEP—Opening of the opera Dec. 3 in New York sets the pace in fashion, and this miss is more than prepared. For her Big Moment, she has an American beauty with fabled inflexible with swathed hips, set off by an ermine bolero.

HE'S NOT FOOLIN'—Beyond Patrolman Raymond A. Hughes, who knows how to use his pistol and rifle, are some new "torpedo boats" built for Uncle Sam by Higgins Industries of New Orleans. Vigilance has increased at all defense plants.

FRENCH—When Britain and the "Free French" forces of De Gaulle tried to take Dakar, French West African capital, General Barrau (above) commanded French land forces.

ROYAL FONDNESS FOR 'F'—F leads as the alphabetical favorite with Egypt's royal family. Here are Queen Farida, 26, with her elder daughter, Ferial, almost two, and baby, Fawzia, who was born in April. Egypt's king is named Farouk.

RELIEF DRIVE—Authors long dead will add the living in Red Cross War Relief Fund rare book auction Dec. 8, 10 in N. Y., directed by Dr. A. E. W. Rasmussen (above), bibliophile. Mrs. S. G. Mortimer, Jr., Mrs. Vincent Astor (right) are patronesses.

BOMBED—Little Bright Eyes is Marion Kolbert, four months old, who was unharmed through a flood bombing and over Survey, 2-land. Her parents pushed her under a table, and debris rained next. The Kolbert family arrived in New York recently.

THE FACES LOOK FAMILIAR—"Mr. Four" of the Axis powers were deep in conversation that possibly concerned their plans for Europe and parts east, west, north and south when this was made at Florence, Italy. Left to right: Premier Mussolini of Italy; Chancellor Hitler of Germany; Foreign Minister von Ribbentrop of Germany; Foreign Minister Ciano of Italy.

MISSOURI PASTORAL IN NEW YORK—From the farm where he milks the cows and tends chickens, Robert MacDonnell Graham of Hickman Hills, Mo., drew inspiration for his painting, "Peaceful Evening," shown in New York and being admired, above, by Edwin Lewenthal. The artist was one of several invited to New York to show how state of Missouri is producing regional art.