Sweet Bread Popular on Holidays

Sweet breads take their place among the "must goes" in holiday baking. Foreign breads are usually those that are best suited to Christmas.

Capuchin bread is a rich chocolate affair, supposed to have originally been made by the Capuchin monks. It is really a cake and goes well in Christmas boxes. You'll find the batter rather thin.

CAPUCHIN BREAD

1 cup sugar
7 eggs
2 ounces bitter chocolate
1/4 ounce grated peel
1/4 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 cup almonds (or filberts)

Beat sugar with eggs as for sponge cake, add chocolate and coarsely cut nuts, peel, spices and flour. Pour into greased 10x12 pans and bake 30 to 45 minutes at 375 degrees. Cut in strips or squares.

Biscotti is another sweet bread to make for Christmas. Below is published a baking powder recipe, although some of the bakers of this Italian bread use yeast recipes. The bread is one that's first baked, then cut and toasted and used to dunk in fruit juice. It is very hard before dunking.

Biscotti

BISCOTTI

4 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 1/4 cups milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon anise seed
2 cups sugar
4 eggs
1 or 2 cups almonds

Sift dry ingredients into a bowl, stir in nuts, pour milk in center and drop in eggs. Stir from center out and when thoroughly mixed, put into an oil paper lined pan, 10x12 inches, and bake at 300 degrees for 45 minutes. Invert on board, remove from pan and cut in long strips. When cool, put on a tray and bake at 300 degrees until thoroughly dry and toasted lightly.

Winter Clothes Problem Solved by New Costumes

Now that winter is here it is hard to get clothes that will be both smart and comfortable in and out-of-doors. The new costumes shown above solve that difficulty. Left, Lucille Ball has chosen the perfect dress for a long winter's wear. It is made of aqua wool jersey, with a yoke embroidered with silver bugle beads. Silver beads are also used to trim the black velvet hat. For the important dinner date the frock worn by Ann Miller, center, is just right. It is in black satin with slim skirt slightly draped at one side. A halo hat of black felt with gold fligree feather trim is worn with it, and the accessories are suede. Right, Ann is wearing a three-piece suit. The top coat is rust wool and the suit of golden beige flannel. All accessories are in rust, to match the topcoat, with a golden quill to trim the hat. For country wear Martha O'Driscoll, below, inset, is modeling a reversible jacket with a hood, the latter being removable. One side of the coat is beige, the other a colorful plaid. A warm, woolly frock of rust and beige plaid is worn under the jacket.
