V. Muetze Dies By Asphyxiation

Lebanon Man Takes Life by Inhaling Fumes of Car Exhaust

LEBANON - Victor Muetze about 40, apparently committed suicide sometime between 12 o'clock midnight Sunday and 7 o'clock Monday morning, A. E. Fisher, Linn county coroner, said yesterday morning.

Muetze was found by neighbors at 7 a.m. Honday seated in his automobile, a victim of asphyxiation. A rubber tube lead from the engine of Muetze's car to its interior. As the gasoline tank was empty, Muetze evidently had started the motor and the tank had run dry sometime before ? o'clock. According to neighbors, they had heard the motor of the Muetse car running at midnight

A note was found on the body but the contents were not made Muetse, who had been in the employe of the Bohle Creamery company for the past 15 years, is survived by his wife, who was in Eugene at the time of the death, one step-son, Glen Faulkner; five sisters, Mrs. Frank Southard, Mrs. Eva Stewart and Mrs. Viola Hewitt of Lebanon; Mrs. Delph Southard of Enumciaw, Wash., and a sister Gertrude of San Jose, Calif.; one brother, Wilbur of Lebanon and by his father, August and mother, Pauline of Lebanon. Funeral arrangements are be ing made by Lowe's mortuary.
