

Local News Briefs

"Active" Party Held—The Salem Active club held its annual Christmas party Tuesday night at the Marion hotel. Twelve boys between the ages of six and eight years, as representatives of the eight grade schools in Salem, were invited as guests. All the boys enjoyed a big turkey dinner, a Christmas tree, and Santa Claus, who gave away presents. After the dinner all the boys participated in games. This was the last meeting until after the first of the new year.

Rotary Donates—Tuesday noon the Salem Rotary club held its annual Christmas meeting at the Salvation Army citadel and each member gave $1 to the Army fund. Worth W. Caldwell, member of the Portland Army board, spoke at the meeting. Special music was given under the direction of Major R. Gifford of the Portland Army. Club members who were not present will make their contributions later.

"ONE WHIFF AND I WAS SOLD"

Proudly, my grocer opened a bag of Airway coffee and handed it to me. "There," he said, "is coffee roaster fresh! Every bean richly mellow!"

"I can't say enough for Airway!" he enthused. "It's choice coffee, store ground, low in price. Try your first pound on the roaster's guarantee!"
