For Oregon Fair

The state board of agriculture yesterday denied a request that dog racing be conducted at the 1941 state fair.

Leland B. Shaw, Portland, president of the Greyhound Breeders' association, proposed night dog races in addition to the afternoon horse races on the state fair track, and George C. Bovee, Portland, suggested that the dogs supersede the horses entirely. The board, however, recommended that greyhound breeding in Oregon be recognized by estab-lishing an exhibit class at the fair for these dogs. The 1941 fair will open Septem-
