Church Rites In Portland Of Interest

St. Michael and All Angel's church in Portland will be the setting for a lovely New Year's Eve service this afternoon when Miss Kristine Kallander, formerly of Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Kallander of Portland, becomes the bride of Mr. C. Gordon Tupling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Tupling of Portland.

Rev. Richard Flag Ayres will perform the ceremony at 3:30 o'clock in the presence of members of the two families and close friends of the couple.

Mrs. Kallander will give her daughter away in marriage. Her wedding gown is of ivory satin fashioned with a full, gathered skirt extending into a train. The tight-fitting bodice is made with a square neckline and leg-of-mutton sleeves. Her fingertip veil is of ivory and she will carry a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and orchids.

Miss Charlotte Kallander of Salem will be her cousin's only attendant and will wear a gown of moss green chiffon fashioned with a full skirt, shirred bodice and bishop sleeves. She will wear a matching braided coronet in her hair and will carry a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Reception to follow
Mr. Lloyd Tupling of Boise, Idaho, will act as his brother's best man and the ushers will be Mr. Eugene Kent, Mr. Erik Townsend, Mr. Jack Lowe, Dr. Earl Lawson and Mr. Dan Webster.

A reception in the parish house will follow the wedding. Mrs. Edna Culver will preside at the serving table and assisting will be Mrs. B. Moon, Mrs. Jack Ruth, Miss Barbara Nelson, Miss Dorothy Tupling, Miss Marjorie Tupling and Miss Helen Lettow.

The couple will go north to British Columbia on their wedding trip and for traveling the bride has chosen a dusty pink wool frock with brown accessories and an oatmeal tweed coat with lynx collar. The couple will return to Portland to reside at 2209 N. W. Everett until their home in the Taalutin valley is completed.

Miss Kallander is a graduate of the University of Oregon and has been a member of the Highland school faculty for several years. Mr. Tupling is a graduate in engineering at Oregon State college and is now in business in Salem.

Miss Billie Cupper is spending the holidays in Salem with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cupper. Miss Cupper is a member of the faculty of the Portland Benson Polytechnic school.
