Mt. Angel Holds Annual Service

New Year's Passed Quietly in College Town; All Teachers Are Back

MT. ANGEL—Mt. Angel celebrated New Year's day and the night before quietly.

Family parties and small gatherings to watch the old year out followed an earlier service at St. Mary's Catholic church at which special thanksgiving for the blessing of the past year were made.

On New Years church services were held in the usual Sunday order with solemn high mass at 10:30 a.m. Holiday visitors were many and the usual numerous New Year's dinners held.

Thursday St. Mary's public grade school once more opened classes. The enrollment still showed some vacancies due to the flu siege which had been rather severe among the youngsters before the holidays. All the teachers were back on duty.
