

January Panel Drawn in Polk

Alice Ray of Willamina Is Only Woman; Term Opens January 13

DALLAS—The panel of voters for the January term of the Polk county circuit court draws here include: Alvin Aehl of Dallas, route one; Harry Aehl, Dallas; Claude Ashby, Dallas, route one; Mark Baker, Independence; Chester Bost, Dallas, route one; Percy E. Castle, Salem, route one; Leo Condon, Monmouth, route two; John Crippen, Monmouth; Lorenzo W. Gilson, Amity, route two; James Hart, Independence. Charles A. Glass, Salem, route one; A. J. Hauser, Independence, route one; Clarence Harwood, Independence; Ronald V. Hogg, Salem, route four; Ernest Holsinger, Monmouth, route one; Ernest Lettiken, Dallas, route one; Clarence McCaleb, Monmouth, route one; Carl O. Muller, Dallas, route two; V. Oliver, Rickreall; Jesse Magdale, Rickreall; Alice Ray, Willamina; Ralph Savary, Dallas, route one; E. J. Schart, Perrydale; Oramel Shreve, Dallas; Emil Stevens, Rickreall; William B. Stoddard, Salem, route one; Roland Truett, Monmouth, route one; Fred Wilson, Salem, route four and F. B. Windsor of Salem, route one. Only one woman's name was drawn in the entire panel. She is Alice Ray of Willamina. The January term has been set to open on January 13. The complete docket follows: January 13, motion day; January 14, Turner vs Osborne; January 14, Bursell vs State Industrial Accident Commission. Monday, January 17, Marston vs. Williamson, Waller Lumber Company, January 19, Lloyd vs. State Industrial Accident Commission; January 20, Schmidt vs. State Industrial Accident Commission; January 21, Fleckinger vs. Fleckinger. Tuesday, February 4, Ewell vs. Williamson, Valley Lumber Company; February 7, Cannon vs. City of Salem; February 6, Administrator Carl Stout estate vs. Shreve garage; February 10, Lehman vs. Lehman. The docket for the January term was prepared by Circuit Judge Airlie G. Walker.

Council Is Named By Molalla Mayor

MOLALLA—At a special council meeting held Thursday night with Mayor Dr. L. E. Heider, W. E. Eberd was elected president of the council and the following council members were appointed by Mayor Heider: Finance, J. E. Riddell, Fred Averill, Oswald Marston; fire and water, Oswald Marston, Clyde W. Kendall, Fred Averill; street, Clyde Kendall, J. E. Riddell, Oswald Marston; public property, Fred Averill, J. C. Rivenes, J. E. Riddell, W. E. Eberd, J. E. Riddell, J. C. Rivenes; health, J. C. Rivenes, Clyde Kendall, Oswald Marston. Applications for the position of chief of police were read and also a petition asking for the re-appointment of George A. Farley as chief. William E. Laloner was appointed as chief of police subject to the approval of the council, the council deferring action on the appointment until the regular meeting to be held on January 14th. Ralph M. Holman was named as the city attorney.

Council Is Named By Molalla Mayor

MOLALLA—At a special council meeting held Thursday night with Mayor Dr. L. E. Heider, W. E. Eberd was elected president of the council and the following council members were appointed by Mayor Heider: Finance, J. E. Riddell, Fred Averill, Oswald Marston; fire and water, Oswald Marston, Clyde W. Kendall, Fred Averill; street, Clyde Kendall, J. E. Riddell, Oswald Marston; public property, Fred Averill, J. C. Rivenes, J. E. Riddell, W. E. Eberd, J. E. Riddell, J. C. Rivenes; health, J. C. Rivenes, Clyde Kendall, Oswald Marston. Applications for the position of chief of police were read and also a petition asking for the re-appointment of George A. Farley as chief. William E. Laloner was appointed as chief of police subject to the approval of the council, the council deferring action on the appointment until the regular meeting to be held on January 14th. Ralph M. Holman was named as the city attorney.

Suver News

SUVER—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dodel returned home Friday afternoon spending the holidays with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Palmer of Oroville, Calif. Mrs. Boston Carter has been suffering with a growth on her knee and may have to have it operated on. She has also had the flu. Little Bobby Stockhoff has been confined to his bed for several weeks, and it is feared he has rheumatic fever the same as his brother Billy. Dinner guests at the Ralph Eckster home Thursday night were Mr. and Mrs. Steve Benedict and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vanderpool. The new home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Conger is almost finished and they expect to move in soon, probably next week.

SCHAEFER'S Drug Store. The FILLING of HIS PRESCRIPTIONS IS A L L - IMPORTANT. No life or limb when we fill your doctor's prescription... SCHAEFER'S Drug Store. 1899-1940. Prescriptions Accurately Filled. 185 N. Commercial Phone 5197-7028

Officers Installed at Macleay Grange By Red Hills Group; Others Are Seated

MACLEAY—Willis Dallas and his team, all of Red Hills grange, composed of E. G. Clark, marshal; Mrs. Pearl Scott, regular bearer; Mrs. Guy Williams, emblem bearer; Fern Morgan, pianist; Guy Williams, soloist and Pomona Master. Roy Rice introducing, installed the following officers of Union Hill, North Howell and Macleay granges here Friday night. Union Hill: master, J. B. Steinberger; overseer, Henry Peters; lecturer, Vera Scott; steward, Wesley Darby, assistant steward, W. F. Kraus; chaplain, Pearl Heater; treasurer, M. M. Gilmore; secretary, Mrs. W. Tate; gate keeper, Jimmy Darby; Ceres, Alice Parrish; Pomona, Eunice Lalr; Flora, Christina Jones; lady assistant steward, Mrs. C. C. Carter; executive committee, C. C. Carter, Glen Parrish, C. T. White. North Howell: master, Helen Weisner; overseer, Wayne Strahan; assistant steward, M. A. Allen; chaplain, Martha Vinton; lady assistant steward, Mrs. M. A. Dunn; Pomona, Bernice Summers; executive committee, Amy Beer. Macleay grange: master, Harry Martin, Jr.; overseer, William Ham Dunigan; lecturer, R. A. M. Stryker; assistant steward, Howard Mader; chaplain, Mrs. M. M. Magee; treasurer, Clarence Johnson; secretary, Mrs. W. A. Jones; gatekeeper, Gene McCallister; Ceres, Mrs. Harry Martin, Jr.; Pomona, Mrs. William Dunigan; Flora, Mrs. C. L. Lyda; executive committee, A. B. Bowen. The lecturer's program included music and an audience stunt. Granges represented and number present were Union Hill, 22; North Howell, 10; Red Hill, nine; Roberts, three; Macleay, 89, and one from an Idaho grange.

Dallas Chamber Gets New Budget

DALLAS—The weekly meeting of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce was held Friday noon with Oramel Shreve presiding. The annual report of William Blackley, secretary of the chamber of commerce and of August Riser, treasurer, were presented and approved. Oramel Shreve, the retiring president, gave a short talk thanking members for the privilege of acting as their president and also thanking them for their excellent cooperation during his term of office. Philip Hayter, the new president, then took charge and spoke briefly. Walter Muir and Ed Dunn were appointed by the president to audit the books of the chamber. A director's meeting followed with the principal item of business the adoption of a budget for 1941. Finance, J. E. Riddell, Fred Averill, Oswald Marston; fire and water, Oswald Marston, Clyde W. Kendall, Fred Averill; street, Clyde Kendall, J. E. Riddell, Oswald Marston; public property, Fred Averill, J. C. Rivenes, J. E. Riddell, W. E. Eberd, J. E. Riddell, J. C. Rivenes; health, J. C. Rivenes, Clyde Kendall, Oswald Marston. Applications for the position of chief of police were read and also a petition asking for the re-appointment of George A. Farley as chief. William E. Laloner was appointed as chief of police subject to the approval of the council, the council deferring action on the appointment until the regular meeting to be held on January 14th. Ralph M. Holman was named as the city attorney.

Victor Point Folk Meet at Brownells

VICTOR POINT—Clarence Brownell was host New Year's eve to a group of the young people of the community at a weekly party. Games, music and cards were enjoyed, and at a late hour refreshments were served. Present were Frances and Margaret Warnock, Betty and Jeanne Marie Mulkey, Dellora Doerfler, Cleo Eaton, Laurel Krens, Kenneth Warnock, Ernest Qualey, Donald and Robert Fisher, Robert Humphreys, Howard Mader, Walter McElhaney, Jimmie and Wesley Darby, Joseph Doerfler, Donald Jaquet and the host Clarence Brownell. The Methodist society of Christiana met at a meeting Thursday afternoon in the church and outlined plans for the new year. The president, Mrs. L. M. Small, presided at the monthly business session, and appointed Mrs. Ellison Whittaker, Mrs. M. E. Townsend and Mrs. Stella Miller as the committee to the church food sale to be held soon in the Townsend building. Mrs. Fred Dierks was appointed chairman of the church spring bazaar to be held in early April. She will select her own committee. Her list of the best proceeds will go to the missionary fund. Attending were Mrs. C. M. Holcomb, Mrs. Fred Dierks, Mrs. F. C. Gunning, Mrs. Q. A. Bear, Mrs. L. M. Small, Mrs. W. R. Hogg, Mrs. Ellison Whittaker, Mrs. William Spiers and Mrs. M. E. Townsend. The silver tea will be held next Friday afternoon at the O. A. Bear home.

Old Trees Found By C. LaFollett

MISSION BOTTOM—Clyde M. LaFollett of Wheatland is cleaning and grubbing over a mile of fence on his 150 acre improved Alberta peach orchard here. In the fence row were about 120 large maple trees planted there some 45 years ago by his father Eliz LaFollett to prevent drift from washing out the fence during high water as did in 1899. In the west end of this orchard stands the missionary monument to mark where Jason Lee and his followers landed.

Patients Admitted At Lebanon Hospital

LEBANON—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Falen of Foster are both in the local hospital with the flu. Levi Ellis, George King and Arthur Meneer of the same neighborhood are other recent admissions and J. Suchanek and Leo Glendennin of Cravtordville; Walter McDowell, Lloyd Cingcade and Clifford B. Gardow of Sweet Home; Margaret Denanore of Jefferson; K. A. Richardson and William Welch of Lebanon.

Enlistment Ended

DAYTON—Donald Creason who has received an honorable discharge from four-year enlistment in the US navy in the Philippine Islands, surprised his aunt, Mrs. Anna Abdill, New Year's eve by arriving at her home for a visit. He expects to go to the Bremerton ship yard. ASSOCIATIONS TO MEET SILVERTON—Annual meetings of the Silverton Hospital association and of the Silverton Country club membership will be held during the month of January. However, exact meeting dates have not yet been set in either case.

Our Usual SPECIAL Complete Tea. Push Over $1.50. Complete... Open Thurs. Eve. by Appointment. 307 1/2 N. Taylor Bldg. CASTLE PERM. WAVES

Newgent Names 8 Committees

Appointments to Be Made at Council Meeting Monday, W. Salem

WEST SALEM—Mayor-elect Guy Nugent announced the personnel of the eight committees of the city council Saturday, although three of the committees are subject to change. Nugent will name many appointments Monday night when the first council meeting for the year will be held. The position attracting the most attention is that of police chief-city engineer. Others are two men for the water board, a city auditor, employees on the street department and a traffic patrolman. Committees are ways and means, Donald Kuhn, Roy Stevens and Dr. A. F. Goffrier; police and fire, Roy Stevens, A. T. Hathaway and Donald Kuhn; ordinance, Joe E. Barry, Dr. A. F. Goffrier, R. L. Forster; street and sewer, A. T. Hathaway, Joe E. Barry, and Roy Stevens; auditing and purchasing, Dr. A. F. Goffrier, Roy Stevens, Dale Jacky and Norman and health, R. L. Forster, Joe E. Barry and A. T. Hathaway; property control, Roy Stevens, Dr. A. F. Goffrier and Donald Kuhn; industrial, Dr. A. F. Goffrier, Roy Stevens and R. L. Forster.

Elmer Headings Buried, Hubbard

ALBANY—N. M. Birky, assisted by Rev. N. A. Lind, conducted funeral services for Elmer O. Headings of Tangent, from the Fairview of a non-rite church Thursday morning at 11:40 o'clock and from the Hubbard Memorial church in the afternoon at 3:30. Burial was in the Zion Mennonite cemetery at Hubbard. Mr. Headings was a resident of route 1, Tangent, died at the Lebanon hospital December 28. He was born in Logan county, Ohio, on January 9, 1881. Previous to coming to Oregon in 1921 he had also lived in East Longview, La. He was married in 1908 to Mrs. Ada Headings at East Longview. Headings had followed farming as an occupation during most of his life. Surviving are the widow and 11 children: Elmer, B. of Haines, Martin J. of Coquille, J. of Willam, Iowa; Mrs. Pearl Kropf of Molalla; Mrs. Velma Koffler, Mrs. Clystra Buerger and Mrs. Vera Whitaker of route 4, Albany and Vernon, Samuel, Opal and Oliver.

Methodist Church Society Has Meet

TURNER—The Methodist society of Christiana met at a meeting Thursday afternoon in the church and outlined plans for the new year. The president, Mrs. L. M. Small, presided at the monthly business session, and appointed Mrs. Ellison Whittaker, Mrs. M. E. Townsend and Mrs. Stella Miller as the committee to the church food sale to be held soon in the Townsend building. Mrs. Fred Dierks was appointed chairman of the church spring bazaar to be held in early April. She will select her own committee. Her list of the best proceeds will go to the missionary fund. Attending were Mrs. C. M. Holcomb, Mrs. Fred Dierks, Mrs. F. C. Gunning, Mrs. Q. A. Bear, Mrs. L. M. Small, Mrs. W. R. Hogg, Mrs. Ellison Whittaker, Mrs. William Spiers and Mrs. M. E. Townsend. The silver tea will be held next Friday afternoon at the O. A. Bear home.

Essay Contest Is Finished, Gervais

GERVAIS—The Odd Fellows lodge has just completed an essay contest among high school students on the subject, "Americanism." Forty-four essays were submitted. A committee of three citizens judged the essays, giving first award to Johnny Brown, second place to Leon Moullet and third place to Martha Hutto. Awards were made during the community Christmas program.

Airlie News

AIRLIE—Mr. and Mrs. Julius Bruston and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Martenson and family from Nebraska had dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McKibben New Year's day. Mr. Kreig visited his daughter, Mrs. May Smith of Portland last week. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williamson of Loraine visited Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Phelps. Homer Link of Fedes is teaching the primary room this week in absence of Mattie Swann, who is ill with the flu. Mrs. Genevora McEee and Grant Castorline of Winters, Calif. were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Phelps. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tom entertained with a turkey dinner Saturday night for Mr. and Mrs. James Harris, Mrs. Ray Strickland and Donna Rae, Bill Ritchie of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris and daughters of Independence. Mr. and Mrs. James Dickey and sons and Maxine Van Patten were dinner guests New Year's day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blanchard of Sheridan.

Smiths Have Son

WOODBURN—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith Wednesday, New Year's day at a Salem hospital. He was the first Woodburn child to be born in 1941.

Store, Home or Farm Insurance. We Offer a 20% Saving. Investigate our lower insurance rates when your next policy renews. Dependable Insurance Companies. Best Insurance Service. Phone 4663. CHUCK Huggins CNET INSURANCE AGENCY. SUCCESSORS—BURGHARDT INS. AGENCY. 129 N. Commercial Phone 4663 Salem, Ore.

Pratum News

FRATUM—The regular January meeting of the Pratum Parents-Teacher association will be held at the schoolhouse Monday night at 8 o'clock. An "Everybody Sing" will precede the business meeting, and during the social period games will be played. Arrangements are made for caring for pre-school children who must accompany their parents. A panel discussion on "Parents' Attitude Towards Report Cards" will be the feature of the meeting. The boys side won the PTA enrollment drive and were taken to the Elsinore theatre Saturday afternoon to see "Santa Fe Trail."

Ideal Rebekahs Install, Turner

TURNER—Ideal Rebekah lodge held an impressive installation of new officers on New Year's night in the Odd Fellows hall, with the following installing officers: district deputy president, Maribel Salisbury; installing marshal, Mabel Walker; installing chaplain, Martha Barnett; musician, Velma Hatfield. Gayette Barnett is the retiring noble grand and was presented with a lovely gift in appreciation of her services. New officers installed were Mary Bell, noble grand; Mildred Davidson, vice grand; Muriel Salisbury, financial secretary; Lucille McKinney, recording secretary; Mabel Walker, treasurer; Nora E. Robertson, warden; Miss Peterson, conductor; Eleanor Titus, chaplain; Alice Thum, RSVG; Hester Crane, LSVG; Thelma Caspell, RSVG; Velma Hatfield, musician; Stella Barnett, inside guardian; Juanita Moullet, outside guardian; Gayette Barnett, PFG; financial committee, Martha Barnett, Alice Titus and Gayette Barnett; three-year trustee, Velva Hatfield; Lucille McKinney, new reporter. Following adjournment a social time was enjoyed, with a huge basket of berberis regana decorating the room. Games were participated in and candy served. Mrs. Jesse O'Brien was a visitor of the lodge.

Guest List Long At Lincoln Home

LINCOLN—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turnbow opened their home for a New Year's dance Tuesday night. Refreshments were served at a late hour to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin and Margaret, Floy and Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stephens and Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Owe Williams, Mr. and Mrs. E. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Martin and Darrell, Merle and Nellie Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Earl King, Mr. and Mrs. George Marrs and Gloria, Ted, Dale, Jacky and Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. James Nolan and David, Jimmy and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. A. Curitt, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kirkwood and Norman and Homer, Leona Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davidson and Cloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Miss Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Greenfield and Donna Lorraine and Dale, Virginia and Bob Heide, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis, Hugo Ahrens, C. Vincent, Ray and Elmer Alfred, Jim Cook, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bennett, Alice Haines, C. Smith, George and Arthur Lane, W. J. Tumkin and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turnbow and Charles, Jr., and Vesta Mae.

Mill City Stars Install Officers

MILL CITY—Mrs. Vivian Hoening was installing worthy patron; Mrs. Edith Schroeder, installing organist and Mrs. Beanie Allen, installing chaplain for Marilyn chapter No. 145, Order of the Eastern Star, Tuesday night. The following officers were installed: Mrs. Edith Fottor, worthy patron; Edward M. Hopper, T. M. Cook and Mrs. Mabel Woodham, associate patron; Delbert EHL, associate patron; Mrs. Henrietta Quinn, secretary; Mrs. Mel Robbins, treasurer; Mrs. Bora Stevens, conductress; Mrs. Gertrude Mason, associate conductress; Mrs. Alice McRobert, chaplain; Mrs. Doris Sherrin, Adah; Mrs. Genevieve Scott, Martha; Mrs. Beatrice Jesson, warden; Donald Sherrin, sentinel.

Sublimity Group Has Special Meet

SUBLIMITY—A special meeting of the Young People's club was held Thursday night to elect officers for the coming year. Harold Wolf was re-elected president; Ralph Lulay, vice-president; Walter Brettenstein, re-elected secretary; Leo Subbaner, re-elected treasurer; Donald Lulay, marshal; Rita Subbaner, reporter; Herbert Lulay, re-elected speaker. The next meeting will not be held January 7, as originally announced, but on January 18. This will be a joint meeting and social with the Stayton Young People's club. Work has also begun for the presentation of a comedy-drama, "An Arispa Cowboy" by members of the club, to be given in the near future.

Rosedale News

ROSEDALE—The Women's Missionary met with Mrs. F. D. Trick Thursday afternoon to continue with sewing for the Red Cross. The Birthday club had an enjoyable time at the Cole home New Year's eve. Present were Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Trick, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Grace Heckart and Billy Cole, Grace Chandler, Mrs. Wanda Alexander, Mrs. Florence Whelan, Gus Cole, Ronald Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Caldwell. The Red Hills Farmers Union will meet Tuesday night at the Rosedale schoolhouse. Mrs. Mary Cammack visited Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. O. E. Bear of Turner.

Soldier Injured When Horse Falls

TURNER—Al Cooper, soldier of Vancouver barracks who was spending the New Year's holidays here at the J. M. Bones home, received serious injuries in a rather unusual accident. While riding horseback on the highway east of Turner, Cooper, on approach of a car from the rear, quickly reined his horse to the side of the pavement and in so doing the horse slipped, throwing Cooper in front of the car. He was rushed to the Deaconess hospital suffering from a dislocated shoulder and severe bruises. He was later transferred to the hospital at Vancouver barracks where it is reported he will be confined for about two weeks.

Radio Shop Gets Changed Location

DALLAS—Ozell Riggs completed moving his radio shop this week to new quarters in the Boydston Radio Electric store at 428 Main street. Riggs will continue his repair work and radio tubes and accessories but will not sell new radios. He will operate independently of William A. Boydston who is owner of the Boydston Radio Electric store.

Molalla News

MOLALLA—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keaton of Meadowbrook district on December 30. A daughter weighing 10 pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hilton of Molalla at Hutchinson hospital on December 31. Notice has been given to the stockholders of the Molalla Telephone company that the annual meeting will be held at the grade school in Molalla, January 11 beginning at 10 o'clock. Marriage licenses have been issued in Vancouver to Neil F. Fomark, Canby and Lillie E. Oglesby, Molalla; to Clot M. Steele, Molalla and Martha E. Watson, Clay Center, Kan. Earl Judd has returned from Twin Falls, Idaho, where he was called on the death of his father. W. J. Arvason is building a mill in the southeast part of town, his operations having been moved from Fairwood district to Molalla. A new concrete foundation is being laid and other repairs made to the H. G. Harvey residence which was partially destroyed by fire.

West Salem PTA To Meet Tuesday

WEST SALEM—The PTA will meet in the upper grades school Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. The business meeting will be held first; then a round table discussion, followed by a spelling bee. Refreshments will be furnished by members whose birthdays come in January and February. The Entre Nous club met in the city hall Thursday night for its monthly business meeting. Mrs. Robert Forster in charge, due to the absence of the president, Guy Nugent. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing 500. There were five tables occupied. Mrs. Anna Kruger won high for the ladies and Mrs. Ellis Gibson won second. Fred Gibson was first and Elmer Cook second for the men. The next meeting will be a social night with Mrs. Charles Unruh and Mrs. Elmer Cook as hostesses.

Seal Sale Total $244 at Woodburn

WOODBURN—The Woodburn Women's club held a meeting Thursday in the club rooms of the library, with the president, Mrs. L. C. Austin presiding. Several reports were given during the business meeting. Mrs. E. M. Randall on membership and Mrs. Austin on the sale of seals which amounts to $244.16 to date. Mrs. Walter Miller announced that proceeds for the Christmas luncheon were $23.74. Mrs. Henry Beaman reported six Christmas boxes prepared and distributed to the needy beside necessary purchases made of shoes. The Home Economics class of high school assisted with donations. The Martha Washington tea which is an annual affair was discussed and will be held next month.

Friends Attend Brown Services

SUVER—A large number of friends and relatives attended funeral services for Mrs. Annie Brown, 77, a pioneer resident, Tuesday afternoon at the Kemay Funeral home in Corvallis. She had been in frail health for a number of years but fell and broke her hip from which she was recovering when fatally stricken with pneumonia.

Friends Attend Brown Services

SUVER—A large number of friends and relatives attended funeral services for Mrs. Annie Brown, 77, a pioneer resident, Tuesday afternoon at the Kemay Funeral home in Corvallis. She had been in frail health for a number of years but fell and broke her hip from which she was recovering when fatally stricken with pneumonia.

Friends Attend Brown Services

SUVER—A large number of friends and relatives attended funeral services for Mrs. Annie Brown, 77, a pioneer resident, Tuesday afternoon at the Kemay Funeral home in Corvallis. She had been in frail health for a number of years but fell and broke her hip from which she was recovering when fatally stricken with pneumonia.

Friends Attend Brown Services

SUVER—A large number of friends and relatives attended funeral services for Mrs. Annie Brown, 77, a pioneer resident, Tuesday afternoon at the Kemay Funeral home in Corvallis. She had been in frail health for a number of years but fell and broke her hip from which she was recovering when fatally stricken with pneumonia.

Friends Attend Brown Services

SUVER—A large number of friends and relatives attended funeral services for Mrs. Annie Brown, 77, a pioneer resident, Tuesday afternoon at the Kemay Funeral home in Corvallis. She had been in frail health for a number of years but fell and broke her hip from which she was recovering when fatally stricken with pneumonia.

DR. PAINLESS PARKER SAYS: "The dental profession realizes the necessity for procedure in plates if comfort is to be achieved for the wearer. That is why it has accepted with such enthusiasm the newly perfected TRANS-FABRIC material. Because the uniformity and reliability of this material insures dentures of low moisture absorption that do not warp or shrink."

Missionary Club Meets, Zena Home

Spring Valley Members Are Guests at 1941 Season; Child Aid Discussed

ZENA—Holiday decorations were arranged about the living rooms of the C. E. Furvise home Thursday when Mrs. Furvise entertained members of the Spring Valley Home missionary society at the first session of the year. Mrs. Fred Muller, president, conducted the meeting which opened with group singing, accompanied by Mrs. S. D. Crawford, pianist. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Muller and reports presented by Mrs. E. C. Shepard, secretary, and the Christmas cheer committee, Mrs. W. W. Henry, Mrs. W. Frank and Mrs. Wayne D. Henry. The group discussed getting ready for the children's Home at Corvallis and Mrs. E. C. Shepard was appointed as chairman of a committee to investigate and make the purchase. January birthdays of Mrs. Ben McKinney and Mrs. Elwood Cooper were remembered. Margaret Furvise assisted the Home at Corvallis and Mrs. E. C. Shepard was appointed as chairman of a committee to investigate and make the purchase. January birthdays of Mrs. Ben McKinney and Mrs. Elwood Cooper were remembered.

Nazarene Society Conducts Meeting

MISSION BOTTOM—The missionary society of the Nazarene church of Salem met at the home of Mrs. Robert Ashbury here Thursday for a regular meeting. A bountiful covered dish luncheon was served at 1 p. m. After the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Leo Collier the afternoon was spent on the study of India led by Mrs. Jessie M. Rudin. Members present were Mrs. Rita Barker, Emma Amundson, Mrs. J. E. Six, Mrs. E. D. Nelwander, Anna Royston, Mrs. Anna Aplet and Ruth, Mrs. Jessie M. Rudin, Mrs. E. M. Goff, Mrs. J. Van Dellander, Mrs. Claud Sharp, Mrs. Lois Shearer, all of Salem. Visitors were J. M. Six, Rev. Leo Collier, Norma Mae Collins of Salem; Robert Ashbury, Mrs. Hazel Bittner and Mrs. Robert Cole, all of Mission Bottom and the hostess, Mrs. Ashbury.

Friends Attend Brown Services

SUVER—A large number of friends and relatives attended funeral services for Mrs. Annie Brown, 77, a pioneer resident, Tuesday afternoon at the Kemay Funeral home in Corvallis. She had been in frail health for a number of years but fell and broke her hip from which she was recovering when fatally stricken with pneumonia.

Friends Attend Brown Services

SUVER—A large number of friends and relatives attended funeral services for Mrs. Annie Brown, 77, a pioneer resident, Tuesday afternoon at the Kemay Funeral home in Corvallis. She had been in frail health for a number of years but fell and broke her hip from which she was recovering when fatally stricken with pneumonia.

Friends Attend Brown Services

SUVER—A large number of friends and relatives attended funeral services for Mrs. Annie Brown, 77, a pioneer resident, Tuesday afternoon at the Kemay Funeral home in Corvallis. She had been in frail health for a number of years but fell and broke her hip from which she was recovering when fatally stricken with pneumonia.

Friends Attend Brown Services

SUVER—A large number of friends and relatives attended funeral services for Mrs. Annie Brown, 77, a pioneer resident, Tuesday afternoon at the Kemay Funeral home in Corvallis. She had been in frail health for a number of years but fell and broke her hip from which she was recovering when fatally stricken with pneumonia.

Friends Attend Brown Services

SUVER—A large number of friends and relatives attended funeral services for Mrs. Annie Brown, 77, a pioneer resident, Tuesday afternoon at the Kemay Funeral home in Corvallis. She had been in frail health for a number of years but fell and broke her hip from which she was recovering when fatally stricken with pneumonia.

DR. PAINLESS PARKER, Dentist. 125 LIBERTY ST. COR. STATE. Telephone Salem 8825. Other offices in Eugene, Portland, Tacoma, Spokane, Seattle and in all leading Pacific Coast Cities.