

Wheat Market Continues up

May Contracts Reach Best
Level Since November;
Oats Near Peak

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—(P)—Gains of almost a cent a bushel were tacked on to wheat prices in the first hour of trading today. May contracts rising to 88 1/2¢, highest since last November. Corn, rye and soy beans were bid up to the best levels in a month or more while oats came within fractions of the peaks reached last week.

Brokers attributed part of the market's strength to traders' interpretation of the president's message. A rise in selected securities and reports of moderate flour business together with downward revision of the Canadian crop estimate were constructive factors.

Wheat closed slightly below the day's best level at final prices were 3¢ higher than Saturday. May 88 1/2¢, July 82 1/2¢.

Some buying of wheat was attributed to mills and traders who have been taking the "short" side to supply commercial interests with offerings the past two or three sessions.

Some dealers also were disturbed by recent low temperatures in the winter wheat belt in view of recent reports of damage that occurred last November. The Seale Grain company's estimate of production in the three principal Canadian provinces of 454,000,000 bushels was 36,000,000 below the last government report.

Nothing more was heard regarding flour or wheat purchases for Red Cross relief work but Spain was understood to have concluded arrangements to buy 13,000,000 bushels of Argentine wheat.
