

Election Held By Lutherans

Silverton Church Arranges
for 50th Anniversary;
Pension Approved

SILVERTON—Election of officers at Calvary Lutheran church will be held Tuesday, Rev. O. C. Olson announces. Officers were elected at the other two Lutheran churches this week.

At Trinity church early steps were taken for plans for the 50th anniversary of the founding of the congregation. This will be observed in 1942 and the preliminary committee is composed of M. G. Gunderson, L. H. Meyer, Amos Corhouse and Silas Torvend. Of these Meyer has been a member the longest, 40 years. One charter member, Mrs. B. Tingelstad, still lives at Silverton.

A pension plan for ministers, adopted by the Norwegian Lutheran church of America, was approved by Trinity congregation. Plans of the building committee of Trinity church were also approved for a new parsonage. The building is to contain eight rooms and cost approximately $5500. No plans have been made as to when it will be started and the building committee was asked to meet with the board of trustees at the Tuesday night meeting.

Serving on the building committee are L. M. Larson, J. Refsland, Ole Sater, Amos Corhouse, L. H. Meyer and W. C. Larson. Officers for Trinity church elected include: M. C. Gunderson and C. J. Dahlen to the board of trustees; recording secretary, Tom A. Anderson; financial secretary, Martin Hattberg; assistant, M. C. Storvick; Sunday school superintendent, Henry Torvend; assistant, Mrs. M. G. Gunderson; head usher, Tim Anderson; assistant usher, Clifford Ekland; caretaker, Carl Johnson; organist, Mrs. Alf O. Nelson; assistant organist, Lois Legard.
