The Judge, so he told WI bossmen during their recent conclave at Spokane, is going to be sole boss of the men in serge. He's going to hire 'em, fire 'em and make them answerable to him alone.

Where heretofore owners and managers have had a voice in the selection of league umps, from now on, the Judge made it plain, he wouldn't so much as accept a recommendation on an umpire.

"I don't want any umpire in this league to feel he is in the least obligated to any one of you gentlemen," said Webster. "Therefore, recommendations from you on umpires not only are not wanted, but will receive absolutely no consideration."

The Judge announced no house cleaning of the holdover staff of seven, which includes such local men as Dick Weisgerber and Moose Clabaugh, but he said he strongly favored young men who wish to make a career of umpir-

Use of the baseball term, batting average, is nigh onto correct in Eberly's case, for the lanky lad gets most of his points by nudging home rebounds. There are taller tossers trodding the boards, but this observer never has seen a hooper, larger or smaller, with any better timing off the perpen-dicular timber than has Eberly.

Kahut or Peterson?

It was seven months ago-June terson, then of Independence but "The Lion" Turner for the state middleweight belt. Referee Ralph Gruman handed down the decision and gave blonde Buddy the belt, although the hardware would have been his had he been whipped.

Reason: Turner came in over the weight limit of 160 pounds, thereby automatically forfeiting the belt to his opponent inasmuch as it was a titular fight.

Peterson, in Gruman's eyes, won that fight not so much on his Dallas Grapplers own merit as upon the demerits of Turner, who, Gruman alleged, misused his elbows. At least a part of the crowd, plus Promoter Tex Salkeld, also held that belief. On the same card, Terrible Tony Kahut gave big Sig Barlund a terrific belting to win a clear-cut decision. There was no doubt in anyone's mind. Now, this Friday night, Peter-Peterson, the gamester who has never risen to any great heights, but who, on the other hand, has never been knocked out or badly hurt, and Kahut, the powerful puncher who was once bounced into the land of dreams by Ted Peterson, Buddy's brother. The popular belief among Salem fight filberts is that Peterson has a chance to retain his title if the bout goes the limit, but that Kahut has an even better chance to administer the coup de grace inside six

PORTLAND, Jan. 14.-(AP)-Willamette university defeated University of Portland, 45 to 43, here tonight in a torrid basketball game in which free throws were the deciding factor.

Sumner Gallagher, husky forward, was Willamette's man of the hour, sinking three free throws in the final three minutes to assure the Bearcats of victory.

The score stood at 42-41 in Willamette's favor when Gallagher went to work at the free throw line, and his three shots wrapped up the game.

Forward Jack Carlin of Portland potted two gift shots in the final 40 seconds, but the Pilots were unable to catch up. Eberly High

Willamette started out strong, rolling up an 18-10 advantage in the first 10 minutes. Portland spurted, however, and at halftime cut the Bearcat lead to two points at 25-23. The second half was bitterly

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 14-(AP) Paul Brown, who was too small to play with Ohio State university's freshman football team 13 years ago, today became the biggest gridieon figure on the Buckeye campas.

A "draft Brown" movement which started a couple of minutes after Francis Schmidt had resign. ed the head coaching job Dec, 16, swept the Massillon high school miradle man into the vacant berth today as the athletic and univer-sity trustees stamped him with their official okeh.

Never in the history of Buckeye athletics has a man received nine years of scholastic mentorship: They lost only one in the last 60 contests.

Brown, informed of his appointment while addressing a joint meeting of Columbus luncheon and sports clubs, declared;

I say this in expectation and conviction that I will receive the utmost cooperation from the university officials and the youngsters?

"I have made no commitments relative to my staff. Tha will take a lot of serious thought, but I expect to have my assistants lined up in about three weeks. But you may say this—the staff will be my own, of my own choosing. And I alone will anwser for it."
