Garden President Has Highest Mark

INDEPENDENCE—An interesting meeting of the Independence Garden club was held Monday night when Professor Hartman of Oregon State college spoke on "Ferns."

Mrs. W. F. Campbell, state flower show chairman announced the Garden club president, Mrs. F. C. Hennigan, to be one of the two Garden club members of the state who took the recent judging examination, who passed 100 per cent.

A late luncheon was served by Mrs. A. L. Thomas, Mrs. Ralph Kletzing and Mrs. Hugh Rogers.

Swegle News

SWEGLE—Young people of the community extended an invitation to every one in the district to join their skating party at Capitola rink Saturday from 2 to 5 p. m. They hope there will be at least 40 so they may have the floor for their party.

Mrs. Victor M. LaDue, president of the parent-teacher association was in Aumsville Saturday attending the all-day county convention. Mr. and Mrs. George Welby of Stayton has purchased a small acreage from the Hentzel estate on Garden Road and is having Marion West put down a well for the home they will build this spring.

Mrs. George Kufner had the intermediate 4H club girls at her home Thursday afternoon for their regular meeting. During the study hour, Carol Garrison used a custard pudding she had made at home for a demonstration, explaining how it was made. Mrs. Kufner served the girls light refreshments.

Clara Mae Dalke was taken to the hospital in Salem Friday night with pneumonia.
