

Planning Meet Slated Tonight

Silverton Council Invites Community to Attend Civic Discussion

SILVERTON—The first meeting of the Silverton Community Planning Council will be held in the new year will be on Tuesday at the chamber of commerce room at 8 o'clock p.m.

The Silverton Community Planning Council is a representative organization, seeking to discover what is best for the community and what the people want and then help plan its accomplishment, officers state.

Each and every civic and public organization in the community is entitled to three delegates to be selected by the community organization to represent their organization at each meeting of the council, F. E. Sylvester, secretary, explains.

At this first meeting for 1941, all delegates heretofore representing their organization in the past and all reflected and new delegates are invited to meet together to discuss any new project in which the community may be interested.

This is not a closed or secret meeting, says Dr. P. A. Loar, president. "The public is invited to attend and participate. There is still unfinished work to do and new projects to be considered."
