

Help List Is Ample at Mill

Lebanon Plywood Plant Strangers to Refrain From Seeking Work

LEBANON—More than 400 local men have applied for work in the new plywood mill, 227 men are said to be employed there now and if more are put on they will probably be chosen from the list of those who have already applied.

Some departments of the plant are running three shifts, others two or even just one. This is because some machines are not yet installed. The two knives, already set up, can cut enough to keep the drying rooms, glue machines and sanders in operation, busy more than the one shift which the lathes run.

An effort is being made to discourage people from coming here from other places looking for work. Enough have come here already to make it a hardship on them and on others.

LEBANON—Seventeen were present at the first Episcopal service, held in Lebanon last Sunday. Rev. M. A. Norton, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church in Albany conducted the service. If interest continues the meetings will be held the third Sunday of each month. Last Sunday the meeting was in the home of Mrs. Louis Bennett. The next February 16, will be with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dunn on Second street between Grant and Maple. Lebanon guardsmen who have been promoted include Sergeant John J. Schenk to staff sergeant; Corporal Willard W. Summers to sergeant; private, first class, John R. Turner to corporal and Private Donald Sanders to corporal.

LEBANON—Arthur Kelly, contractor, began work Monday on the new Downing building on the southwest corner of Main and Ash streets. The structure which will be of reinforced concrete with all fireproof features is to be 159 by 44 and to have one store fronting Main street and three on Ash.
