Violinist to Play Here Soon

Announced recently by the Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce; was the news that Rubinoff, famous conductor, composer and violinist, and his Stradivarius violin, will offer a concert of popular and classical music at the high school auditorium on February 11.

Breaking a precedent of seven years, during which time he was featured on nationwide radio broadcasts as conductor, Rubinoff is now touring the country offering a concert presentation of the modern classics.

Talented as an instrumentalist, composer and conductor, Rubinoff leaped into national prominence as the result of the inspirational quality of his music. His program will include music from his famed broadcasts, original compositions, tunes from his motion pictures and familiar classics.

Reserved seat tickets may now be purchased at the Starr-Fender Music store and general admission tickets from any music store or member of the junior chamber
