The Gemmell Intelligence Service, known in briefs (not to be confused with shorts) as the GIS, takes time out to answer the mail. (Ed Note: Please enclose a copy of the 1941 World Almanac with every query addressed to this depart- a-month campaign Promoter Jament. I'm only a single-cylinder encyclopedia) : -

Dear Sir: I am very anxious to know the nationality of Rapid 'Robert Feller, as you fellows term him. Last summer First Half Title while passing through Van Meter, Iowa, I saw his initials, R. F. carved in the trunk of a small ash tree. Below them was this notation: SO-18. Could this mean he is a Spanish-Ostrian? I took the precaution to cut down the Win Fifth Straight 46-36; tree and am forwarding it to you under separate cover. Please send it back if you can't use it in answering this question.

Answer: Robert William Andrew Feller, born November 8, 1918, stands 6-foot-1 and serves a mighty wicked baseball. The fact that he bats and throws righthanded would perhaps indicate that he is an American, but the GIS begs to report he is of German-French extraction.

Battle Begins at 7 p.m., Our Time; Bookmakers Say Five Rounds

By SID FEDER NEW YORK, Jan. 30-(AP)-Red Burman's two-year chase for a crack at Joe Louis' heavyweight championship ends in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night. The Baltimore battler, ranked among the first five heavyweights in the world for the past two years, gets his chance with the Bomber in a fight scheduled for 15 rounds, but which all but Red's very best friends say will

Off his record, Burman ranks as the most workmanlike warrior to take a shot at Joe in a couple of years. Yet, Promoter Mike Jacobs and Louis' own fistic family are taking Burman so seriously they've already lined up tussles for Joe against Gus Dorazio in Philadelphia next month, Abe Simon in Detroit in March and Arturo Godoy in Los Angeles in April

Is 13th Defense It will be the 13th title defense in Louis' record-breaking run as head man of Fistiana and his second trip to the post in the fightcohs lined up for him this winter and spring.
