

Dallas Lions Fete Chief K. Sorrick

International President Is Welcomed to Oregon
by Governor

DALLAS—Karl M. Sorrick, international president of the Lions club, was the guest of honor at a banquet and district meeting held in the chamber of commerce rooms at Dallas Tuesday night. Approximately 200 were present for the meeting.

Walter Craven, president of the Dallas Lions club, called the meeting to order and Jack Eakin, a member of the local club, acted as toastmaster. A roll call of clubs was held with every den in the district represented. The Seaside club had its entire active membership present.

Karl Sorrick was introduced by Hollis Smith of Dallas, district Lions club governor. Sorrick discussed work of the organization, its beginnings and its development.

Governor Charles Sprague was a guest for the dinner and welcomed Sorrick to the state. Mayor Leif S. Finseth, mayor of Dallas, extended a welcome from the city.

Other distinguished guests present included Secretary of State Earl Snell, Senator Dean Walker of Independence, Senator Charles Zurcher of Enterprise, Senator Joe C. Smith of Lebanon, Senator H. R. Kaufmann of Toledo, Representative C. J. Hockett of Enterprise, Representative Angus Gibson of Junction City, Representative Roy E. Carter of Gold Beach, and deputy district governor of Lions clubs, Martin of The Dalles.

Williams, Mrs. Loren Most, Mrs. William Cockle, Mrs. Theron Hoover, Mrs. Frank Cooper and Mrs. Cleve Robinson.

Husband Is Honor Guest at Dinner

HAZEL GREEN—Mrs. Ralph Worden was hostess at a chicken dinner honoring her husband and her father Lee Clark of Sheridan on their birthdays.

In addition to the honor guests, covers were laid for Mrs. Lee Clark, Mrs. Amanda Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Clark and children, Tommy and Ronald of Kelso; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woodburn and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Van Cleave and Doryl of Middle Grove; Mrs. J. R. Worden, hostess, Mrs. R. Worden and children, David, Glen and Beth.

Pie Social Adds $22 to Club Fund

GRAND ISLAND—The pie social held Saturday night at the schoolhouse under the sponsorship of the improvement club was well attended with approximately $22 being added to the club treasure. The program was given by local talent under the direction of Mrs. Daniel Tompkins and Mrs. Giles Rockhill.

Mrs. Anna Umbanhour of Seattle has been a guest for the past week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rockhill and family. Mrs. Umbanhour is a former resident of this district.

Edward Taylor of Centralia, Wash., has been visiting during the past week in the home of his nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Worth Wiley and family. Mrs. Edwina Mandigo, who has been quite ill from after effects of the flu, is much improved and is home again from a Newberg hospital.

Roberts Grange Slates Benefit

ROBERTS—Mrs. S. C. Davenport entertained the GT Woman's club Thursday with Mrs. E. A. Goodrich and Mrs. Joe Ringwald as assisting hostesses. A dessert luncheon was served to 16 members and one special guest, Mrs. Madge Wade.

Mrs. Davenport, vice-president, was in charge of the business meeting in the absence of Mrs. Alice Coolidge, who is in Salem taking care of her brother who is ill, and it is the first meeting she has missed since the club started in 1914, except one winter she spent in California.

Mrs. Margaret Gilbert received the contest prize.

The GT women are sponsoring a benefit dance at the grange hall Wednesday night, February 12, starting at 8 o'clock.

Committees are: Refreshment, Mrs. Albert Blankenship, Mrs. E. A. Goodrich and Mrs. S. C. Davenport; cashier, Mrs. Art Thompson; music, Mrs. Forest Edwards.

Mrs. J. P. Blankenship will open her home to the club February 13.
