Wedding Day Announced Saturday

Valentine envelopes revealed the news of the forthcoming marriage of Miss Helen Boardman and Mr. Thorne H. Hammond on April 12 at the charmingly arranged at-home for which Mrs. Arthur G. Upston and her daughter, Mrs. Wheeler R. English, were hostesses last night at the former's home on Chemeketa street.

A large group of young matrons and maids were invited to call between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock. Receiving with the hostesses and Miss Boardman were the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Samuel H. Boardman, and Mrs. Thorne W. Hammond of Portland, mother of the groom-elect.

Miss Maxine Rogers greeted the guests at the door and passed out the announcements. Presiding at the punch bowl during the evening were Mrs. Wayne J. Page of Dallas and Mrs. Albert Mefford, sister of the bride-to-be. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Joseph E. Harvey, jr., Mrs. Wilson Siegmund, Mrs. William H. Dashney, Mrs. Jack Carlon of Portland, Mrs. Ruth Cattrall, Mrs. Robert Barnett and Miss Lucile Brainard.

On the center of the serving table, which was covered with a handmade lace cloth from Brazil, was a large nosegay of red car-nations and paper white narcissus in the shape of a heart and two smaller red and white nosegays with white paper frills on each side. The arrangement was flanked with tall red candles in red heart holders. On the mantle was a bouquet of red and white carnations, cala lilies and acacia and two brass candelabras holding matching tapers. Other bouquets of accacia, daisies, godetia and ranunculas were arranged about the rooms.

The marriage of Miss Boardman and Mr. Hammond will take place at the First Presbyterian church with Rev. W. Irvin Williams officiating. Miss Boardman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Boardman and a graduate of Willamette university where she was a member of Beta Chi sorority. She is an active member of the Salem Junior Woman's
