

Flags Presented Woodburn Stars

Impressive Ceremonies Are Observed by 100 Guests
From Three States

WOODBURN—Evergreen chapter No. 41, OES, met Monday night at the Masonic temple with Mrs. Gail Landen, worthy matron, presiding. Worthy patron of the chapter, J. W. Moore, assisted Mrs. Landen.

A ceremony was given by members of Orchard chapter of Molalla when they presented three traveling flags to Evergreen chapter. Color bearers during the presentation ceremony were Karl Tredwell bearing the United States flag; J. V. Robertson bearing the Oregon flag and the Eastern Star flag was carried by Oliver Buxton. Talks were given by Mr. Tredwell, Dr. Robertson, Minnie Shaver and Gladys Olson pertaining to the three flags. Introductory and closing addresses were given by Margaret Wallace, worthy matron, and Alfred Shaver, worthy patron of Orchard chapter.

About 100 members and visitors were present, representing chapters from Molalla, Portland, Oregon City, Donald, Silverton, Jacksonville, Enterprise, Lostine, Boston, Mass., and Long Beach, Calif.

Distinguished guests were Mrs. Mabel Settlemeier, past worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon; Maud Dilg, grand warden; Ann Rundell, member of the traveling flag committee; Mary Alfred, member of International temple fund committee and several matrons and patrons of 1941.

The worthy matron announced a no-host supper at 6:30 to precede the next regular meeting on Monday, February 24. The committee in charge will be Jessie Sims, Frank and Lois Proctor.

The traveling flags will remain in Woodburn until February 18, when Evergreen chapter will present them to Acadia chapter at Stayton.

Refreshments were served by Martha Reiling, Buelah Gilbert, Carolyn Evenden, Annette Lytle and Myrtle Gill.
