

Barber Is Kin Of Nobility

Ex-Turner Man Gets Word From Hero Of Dunkirk

TURNER—Friends of Charles Davies, ex-Turner barbershop proprietor will be interested to learn that Sir Cyril Newall, recently appointed governor general of New Zealand, is Davies' first cousin. Newall, who has been in command of the Royal Air Force since 1937, and in charge of the air coverage of the retreat from Dunkirk, was retired just prior to his new appointment.

On February 5 he sailed from San Francisco on the Matson liner, Mariposa, accompanied by his wife, three children and personal staff.

Davis, now located in Turlock, Cal., has never met his distinguished relative but his two brothers, Cecil of Salinas and Ian of San Jose, each spent a year in England visiting relatives there. While Davies was in Turner his brother Ian stopped for a visit on his return from a trip to England and entertained them with moving pictures taken by him of relatives and scenes of the trip.

TURNER—Rev. and Mrs. John Mitchell, new pastor and wife of the Methodist church, were honored with a surprise reception and gift shower Thursday night. An impromptu program was enjoyed by Rev. and Mrs. Mitchell, Cecil Wickline, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gunning, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dierks, C. W. Duncan, Mrs. L. M. Small, Mrs. Earl Prather and Margaret Ann, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Townsend.

TURNER—Mrs. Tony Gentry was pleasantly surprised at her Marion home on Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Stella Miller, Mrs. J. M. Bones, Mrs. Robert Mitchell and Mrs. Daniel Bones of Turner gathered to celebrate her birthday. Mrs. Gentry has been an invalid for many years, and will be remembered as Ruth Cook, formerly of Turner.

Lawmakers Get School Visit

AUMSVILLE—The commercial law class of the local high school visited the legislature Thursday, being privileged also to observe a trial in the supreme court and a trial in the circuit court before Judge L. N. McMahon.

Honorable Alfred Dobson was the presiding judge at the supreme court.

Members of the commercial class are Verla Baldwin, Robert Bankston, Wanda Creason, Neil Dickman, Richard Gray, Harold James, Verna Lewis, Francis Macmanman, Allie May Morgan, Luella Morgan, Melvin Nichol, Eugene Powers, Keith Rebo, Gene Russell, Stanley Russell, Helen Smith, Margaret Smith, Fred Steiner, May Strawn, Maurice Sutton, Allan Swaboda, George Tooker, Gertrude Weiss and Kenneth Wilkinson.

Grangers' News

MONMOUTH—Monmouth grange members decided at the February meeting to work on three projects from a suggested list of agricultural measures: rodent control, club work and grasses, which includes weed control.

Program features included songs by Claude Larkin of Rickreall; a brief account of the life of Oliver H. Kelley, a grange founder; talk, R. B. Swenson on the Lincoln memorial and museum of Washington, DC.

Dr. C. A. Howard, president of OCE was made a member of this grange. He formerly belonged to the Blue Mountain grange of Union county.

H. B. Sterling of Oregon State college gave an informative talk on agricultural crops which may be affected in price and consumption by the European war. While export crops may suffer from a curtailed market, it is believed that better employment conditions at home will increase spending power and absorb much of the surplus of our national home markets.

Queen Elizabeth—off Africa

Not so long ago the Queen Elizabeth, Britain's great passenger liner, sailed out of New York's harbor, camouflaged a dark gray, destination unknown. Here is the liner, at rest against a backdrop formed by Table Mountain, Capetown, South Africa. The ship made her 7,000-mile trip without incident.

Rams What Am—and Men Who Know Their Value

The most recent and the earliest Willamette valley importers of Romney-Marsh sheep from New Zealand were brought together in Salem last week by the arrival of these two fine rams (above), purchased by Clarence Bishop of Portland. On hand to inspect the sheep were William Riddell of Monmouth (left foreground), first importer of Romneys; Henry Ahrens of Turner (center foreground), chairman of the Marion County Fat Lamb show, his brother, Eddie (right foreground), president of the American Romney Breeders' association, and, in background, from left, J. D. Mickle, state director of agriculture; Clarence Bishop; Roy Ward, secretary of the Oregon Wool Growers' association, and C. P. Bishop of Salem, pioneer clothing merchant—State department of Agriculture photo.

Planting Done On Arbor Day

Students Enter Names When Setting out PTA Gift

PRATUM—Children of the Pratum school observed Arbor Day last Friday, which being the second Friday in February, has been set aside for planting trees and beautifying school grounds in western Oregon.

The bright morning sunshine made a fitting setting for the impressive program and planting a shrub in front of the school house.

The program opened by singing "America" and saluting the flag on the school building. Appropriate poems followed: "The Tree" by Paul Unruh, "Trees" by Edna Cowen, Bliss Carman's "Trees" by Julia Jensen, "Out of Doors" by Opal Bradley and "Planting the Tree" by Wanda Rodgers.

The Laurestinia, provided by the local Parent-Teacher association, was planted by a committee of three boys, Lawrence Wenger, Paul Unruh and Claude Rodgers.

Planted with the shrub was a bottle containing the date and names of all those attending school: Caroline Giese, Marvin Jensen, Elsie DeVries, Fred Lambert, Lois Lidtke, John Wenger, Bobbie Bradley, Gary Rodgers, Ruth Giese, Robert Buettler, Aleda Rehm, James Jensen, Dwain Bethel, Clayton Wenger, Marian Giese, Opal Bradley, Betty Harlor, Paul Unruh, Jerry Lynds, Wayne Cornu, Edna Cowen, Claude Rodgers, Julia Jensen, Wanda Rodgers, Lawrence Wenger, Carman Roth, Anna Baker and teacher, Grace Klampe.

The program closed by singing "God Bless America."

In the afternoon St. Valentine's Day was celebrated. Pratum Community club will meet at the school house Wednesday night.

Keizer School Clubs Meet

Pastel Work Is Done By Art Class; New Pupils Enter

KEIZER—The fifth grade art class, under direction of Mrs. Catron, is making pictures of Mt. Hood with pastel crayons, and fourth grade pupils of Miss Kronberg are taking an imaginary trip around the world.

Three new pupils entered Keizer school this week, Lillian Woodridge, fourth grade; Beverly Woodridge, seventh, and Wanda Woodridge, eighth.

The seventh and eighth grade English class is studying the life of Abraham Lincoln.

Keizer school is competing in the flag contest, and pupils are eagerly studying rules concerning the display of the flag.

At the meeting of the Golden West health club, the Keizer Journal was read by the staff and Bill Durham was appointed editor for the next edition, assisted by Viola Geir. A committee was named to make the Valentine box and decorate the rooms for the party.

Six boys gave a demonstration on what to do in case of a crushed hand, eye injury, broken arm or leg or profuse bleeding.

James Green gave a talk on artificial respiration, after which the boys gave a demonstration.

Principal Nels Anderson gave a talk on the necessity of artificial respiration. A health report was given by Howard Saucy.

At the regular meeting of the Happy Citizens health club, the seventh grade read about posture, and a posture drill followed. Four chosen as having the best posture were Clifford Klemm, Lavonne Sandaw, Luella Eby and Donald Earle.

"The World is Full of Roadways" while studying airways and roadways. The program acted out two plays on Lincoln's birthday, "In Boston" and "Abraham Lincoln, the Rail Splitter."

The four higher grades are making health posters in art. When finished the teachers will select the best ones and display them on the bulletin board. Then the best of them will be sent to the fair.

The third grade of Mrs. Catron's room has reverted to 100 years or more when Oregon was a primeval forest inhabited only by Indians and a few fur traders. They have built a wigwam. Dolls are strapped to boards for papooses and are carried on the backs of the young squaws. A covered wagon from an immigrant train stands nearby.

The scene depicts an attack by the Indians, a number losing their lives, while the remaining are happy when the train finally reached Fort Vancouver, all were treated kindly by Dr. McLaughlin and his associates.

COAST INDUSTRIES BOOM  BUSY WORKERS EAT WELL  WIVES PRAISE NUCOA

IT TAKES PLENTY OF ENERGY FOOD for a man who is working hard. And that's where bread-and-NUCOA sandwiches just "fill the bill." Delicious NUCOA furnishes as much food-energy as the most expensive spread for bread—3,300 calories per pound. And NUCOA is so inexpensive you can spread it on with a good free hand!

PRECIOUS, PROTECTIVE VITAMIN A is in NUCOA, too. It is added to NUCOA under scientific test and control, so that, winter and summer, every pound of NUCOA always contains over 7,500 units of VITAMIN A! No wonder mothers of school-age children say, "What a blessing NUCOA is!"

MOTHER STARTS THE FAMILY OFF TO A GOOD DAY with NUCOA on the breakfast table. For you can put the flavor of NUCOA to the severest test there is—the hot-toast test—and hear no grumbles from the head of the house. NUCOA always tastes SWEET AND FRESH. It is made here on the Coast, on order only—never held in storage.

NUCOA ADDS REAL OLD-FASHIONED GOODNESS to all your cooking. It seasons vegetables, sauces or scalloped dishes luxuriously... gives cakes, cookies and fried foods the real flavor which only a spread for bread can give. Yet you can use delicious NUCOA lavishly in cooking—without running your food bills up sky-high!

NUCOA, THE DELICIOUS MODERN "THRIFT SPREAD" FOR BREAD, HELPS BALANCE YOUR DIET AND YOUR BUDGET, TOO!

NUCOA is made from pure vegetable oils churned in fresh pasteurized skim milk—both products of American farms. It is wholesome and nourishing—and so digestible!
