Mt. Angel Post Plans Incorporation; Dance Slated

MT. ANGEL—Mt. Angel Legion auxiliary sponsored a national defense program at the Memorial Hall Tuesday night for a joint gathering of the post and unit and guests. Regular business meetings were held previously in separate meeting rooms. Dr. E. J. Corcoran was the featured speaker, talking on "National Defense."

Other numbers included "God Bless America," Dick Sibley; "Put Your Arms Around Me, Honey," Little Betty Norton; "Your Flag and My Flag," Dorothy Prosser; vocal duet, "I Am an American," June Ann and Flodine Lucht. The last number consisted of moving pictures of world events of 1940 and two films of local scenes, shown by Alois Keber, local motion picture camera enthusiast.

At the auxiliary business session a report on the Marion county council, held at Silverton February 14, was given. It was noted that the council advocated a contest on the flag code. The unit decided to take the matter up with the teachers of the local grade school to see if a contest would be advisable.

Announcement was made that Mrs. Merton White, wife of a past commander of the Mt. Angel post, had donated a silver platter to the unit to use as it saw fit.

The auxiliary quilt, the blocks for which were donated by Mrs. Theresa Uselman, has been completed and will be awarded to the winner at the Legion dance Friday night, February 21.

Special guests of the auxiliary were Mrs. Laverne Norton, Mrs. J. L. Meek and Mrs. James Fournier.

Brazier Small of Salem, district No. 2 commander, addressed Legionnaires on national defense and explained the questionnaire which all Legionnaires are being asked to answer.

Other guests were Ray Stumbo, commander of Capital post Salem, and Arthur Johnson, a past commander.

The post agreed definitely to become incorporated. It was also added to put up a bulletin board at the Memorial hall on which any information of interest to members will be posted.
