Military Ball Brilliant Affair at Armory Saturday Night

Colorful flags and draped bunting provided a patriotic setting for the eighth annual Military ball at the Armory last night. Several hundred couples, including many from out-of-town, attended the brilliant affair.

Jim Hannam and his orchestra from Portland played for dancing from 9 to 12 o'clock and Miss Doris Price was the featured singer. The distinguished guests formed a receiving line at one end of the hall. Following Bride-Elect the entry of the colors the grand march formed and was led by Will Be Sprague. For the occasion Mrs. Sprague wore a white lace and Feted with a jacket. Balloons were re-
