

Local News Briefs

Permits Issued—Rich L. Reimann was issued a building permit Monday by Building Inspector E. C. Bushnell's office to erect a one-story dwelling and garage at 1025 North 13th street, $4000, and A. M. Hansen to erect a 1 1/2 story dwelling and garage at 1118 Nebraska street, $1700. Other permits were issued to Mark Powell, private garage at 1895 North Church, $25; Foster & Kleiser, billboard at 1223 South Commercial, $25; Dale Hilborn, repair dwelling, 334 North 23rd, $40; Frank Gard, repair dwelling at 228 Bush, $100; Jack Cherrington, repair dwelling at 1599 Court, $20; J. N. Olmsted, repair dwelling at 1845 North Commercial, $20; Block's Shoe store, repair store building at 178 North Liberty, $400; Capitol Variety store, repair store building at 1262 State, $25.

Lutz florist, P. 9592, 1276 N. Lib. Taxes Cancelled—The Marion county court Monday signed an order requested by the state land board cancelling taxes on 150 acres of property taken by the land board under foreclosure from Lloyd E. Hillery. The total levy cancelled was for the years of 1932-1940, inclusive, and amounted to $1303.08. Cancellation of such taxes is a part of the pending county court's policy of getting lands back on tax rolls as rapidly as possible, once they have become the property on non-taxable government agencies.

Autos Collide—Autos operated by George W. Knieren, 1439 Gregson street, and Joe Himmel, 965 Imperial drive, collided Sunday morning at Liberty and Center streets, with little damage. A three-way accident at Court and Commercial streets Sunday morning involved John Fisher, 330 Bush street; Herman A. West, Portland, and Hubert Evans, 315 1/2 North Commercial street. Damage was slight.

To Be Host—Highlight of the AF & AM lodge meeting here Wednesday night when Pacific lodge No. 50 will be host to Corvallis lodge No. 14, is the scheduled conferring of the MM degree.

Obituary

Hilmer In this city Sunday, February 23, Helena A. Hilmer, aged 73 years, late resident of 1076 South Liberty street. Mother of Selma and Esther Hilmer of Salem, Wesley F. Hilmer of Spokane, Edwin W. Hilmer of Vancouver, Wash., Milton A. Hilmer of Ridgefield, Wash.; sister of Frank and Charlie Buss and Mrs. B. C. Hagmann, all of South Dakota; also survived by five grandchildren. Funeral services will be held in the chapel of the W. T. Rigdon company Tuesday, February 25, at 1:30 p. m. Dr. Ray S. Dunn and Rev. C. A. Wentsch will officiate. Concluding services and interment in Spokane, Wash.

Radcliffe Mrs. Vera Radcliffe, former resident of Salem, in Grants Pass Sunday, February 23, at the age of 28 years. Survived by widower Robert W. Radcliffe of Grants Pass; parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Carter of Salem; sister, Mrs. Sarah Gordon of Toledo, Ore.; grandmother, Mrs. S. C. Spencer of West Salem. Services will be held Tuesday, February 25, at 3 p. m., from the Clough-Barrick chapel, with Rev. W. Irvin Williams officiating. Burial will be at Mt. Crest Abbey mausoleum.

Hitchcock Orion Brooks Hitchcock, at his residence, Rt. 1, Sublimity, Sunday, February 23, at the age of 86 years. Survived by daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Lininger of Manitou Springs, Colo.; son, Stanley S. Hitchcock of Sublimity; and five grandchildren. Services will be held Tuesday, February 25, at 1:30 p. m., from Clough-Barrick chapel, with Rev. Guy L. Drill officiating. Concluding services will be in Cityview cemetery.

Ferguson Andrew Ferguson, 86, late resident of 525 Judson street. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church. Funeral announcements later by Terwilliger-Edwards Funeral home.

Coming Events

Feb. 27—Youth rally to hear Dr. Dan Foling at Salem high school. March 1—Oregon Fox and Mink Breeders association meeting, Salem chamber of commerce. March 1—New citizens pilgrimage by Governor Charles A. Sprague at statehouse. March 10—Willamette university faculty play, "Daley." March 18—Institute of Citizenship at Willamette university. Mar. 14, 15—High school forensic tournament at Willamette university.

Penney's new hosiery mending department opens Wed. morning.

Booked by Police—Failure to stop, most frequent offense in Salem over the weekend, was charged by city police to G. B. Wickersham, Klamath Falls; Donald L. Turnidge, Jefferson; Johnnie D. Parnell, Warm Springs; Cecil W. Larson, Valsez; Bette Jean Sunderland, Turner; Bert F. Layman, Corvallis; Ernest G. Whittington, 223 North 23rd street, and Ronald Birch, 1085 Highland avenue, who was charged also with having no driver's license. William Miltonberger, route 4, and Harold Lindley, Albany, were charged with violation of the basic traffic rule. Art Hanson, 85 Park street, was released on $250 bail after being charged with drunken driving.

Priv. money, any amt., on good security. Abrams & Ellis, Masonic Bldg.

Licenses Move—Approximately $310 was collected Monday in 1941 city and county dog license taxes by deputies of County Clerk U. G. Boyer. A total of 3181 licenses, of which 810 are city and 2351 are county, have been sold since the first of January, the clerk indicated, with an estimated 3200 still to be purchased by dog owners. The majority of these are expected to be sold before February 28, deadline for payment of minimum fees.

Fires Put Out—Three minor fires called Salem fire equipment Sunday and Monday. Damage was slight in all. The first, a chimney fire at 6:30 a. m. Sunday at 2030 North Church street; R. E. Shattuc's wood saw caught fire Sunday afternoon at 935 North Commercial street; another chimney fire was extinguished Monday noon at 555 North Cottage street.

Safety of your savings is insured at Salem Federal, 130 S. Liberty.

Enlist in Navy—Robert E. Winkenwerder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Winkenwerder, 2295 North Liberty street; Oscar D. Blair, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Blair, route 2 Salem, and Lawrence D. Pranger, Toledo, were enlisted Monday in the United States navy by Chief Quartermaster Robert B. Fallon and have been sent to San Diego for recruit training.

Film Tonight—As a forerunner to the Willamette university football trip to Honolulu next November, Dr. David B. Hill will show moving pictures of Hawaiian scenes and the OSC basketball team's trip there last year in Waller hall tonight.

Penney's new hosiery mending department opens Wed. morning.

Mrs. Jinks Dies—Word was received here Monday of the death in Portland on Saturday of Mrs. J. C. Jinks of Cascadia. Mrs. Jinks lived in Salem about 16 years before going to Cascadia. Services will be Wednesday at 10 a. m. in Lebanon.

Discuss Legislation—The Salem local of the Workers Alliance of America will meet in the Marion county courthouse tonight at 7:30. Miss Ruth Haefner of Portland and others will speak on pending legislation. The cotton stamp plan will be discussed.

Births

Ritchie—To Mr. and Mrs. John Marvin Ritchie, 1756 Center street, a daughter, Linda Rae, born February 21, Salem General hospital.

Donations Received—All units of "Bundles for Britain" in Oregon are receiving donations of cash and garments, toward support of a children's hospital in England. The Oregon unit has taken the responsibility for the maintenance of the hospital, which was recently bombed. Checks are to be sent to Mrs. Taylor Hawkins, or donations may be brought to the headquarters in the Breyman building at 180 North Commercial street.

Speakers Announced—Dr. Herbert E. Rahe, Willamette university forensics coach, announced Monday that Glenn Olds, Sherwood junior, and Marjorie Waters, Salem junior, will represent Willamette March 12 in the Old Line oratory contests at Linfield college, sponsored by the Intercollegiate Forensic association of Oregon. This will be the last in the year's series of individual contests.

Penney's new hosiery mending department opens Wed. morning.

Mission School Closes—School of Missions will close Wednesday night at the First Baptist church with the lecture by Mrs. C. R. Manley, returned missionary from India. For the past six weeks the school has been conducted each Wednesday night at 7:15, using as its text Earle Ballou's "Dangerous Opportunity," a book dealing with the social upheaval in China.

US Engineer is Visitor—Lt. L. W. Franklin of the 10th Engineers at Ft. Lewis was the weekend guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Franklin. He was formerly resident engineer for the Oregon State highway department.

To Show Quilt—Townsend club No. 3 will follow the regular business session tonight with entertainment and a program which will feature display of a quilt, Mrs. Lila Stover, entertainment chairman, said Monday.

Freshen up your bedroom with the New Cabin Craft Spread in Needlepoint texture, Regency colors. Better Bedding Store.

States Country Slicker—Eola community club will present a three act comedy, "Aaron Slick from Punkin' Creek," Friday night at 8 o'clock at the school house. Admission will be 10 and 15 cents.

To Address Club—Guest speaker at the regular meeting of Townsend club 4 to be held Wednesday night, February 26, at 7:30, will be Dr. P. O. Riley of the secretary of state's office.

Plan Skating Trip—The Salem Skating club will skate tonight at the Imperial rink in Portland. Cars will leave the chamber of commerce at 6:30 o'clock.

Postcards Stolen—Phillip Jaskoski reported to police Monday the theft of 1800 printed postcards from his printing shop at 237 State street.

Club Meeting—The West Salem Townsend club No. 1 will meet at the West Salem Methodist church tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Oil Co-op to Meet—A Grange Oil cooperative meeting will be held this afternoon at the Salem chamber of commerce rooms.

Fur Meeting Set—Oregon Fox and Mink Breeders association will meet Saturday in an all day session at the chamber of commerce.

Forensic Tourney Set March 14, 15

Near record turnout of high school speakers is expected, on March 14, 15, Dr. Herbert E. Rahe, Willamette university forensics coach, said Monday. The seventh annual Willamette high school forensic tournament is slated the same weekend as the state high school basketball tournament at the university.

No limit has been set this year on the size of the teams which may be entered in the five divisions, debate, oratory, extempore speaking, serious interpretation and humorous interpretation.

Schools submitting registrations are Medford, Corvallis, Lebanon, Parkrose, Gresham, Marshfield, Roseburg, Albany, Molalla, Dallas, Oregon City, Salem, Banks and Beaverton.

Laundry Owner Leaves Estate To Daughter, Real Property To Granddaughter

Will of E. L. Wieder Admitted to Probate Reveals Approximately $50,000 Will Be Distributed; Son Provided for

The will of Edwin L. Wieder, prominent Salem citizen who died last Friday, was admitted Monday to probate with Walter C. Winslow, attorney, named as executor and Roscoe Shelton, Joseph Adolph and Frank Durbin, appraisers.

The estate comprises $5000 in real property located in the North Salem addition and in Scott's acres, and $45,000, chiefly in capital stock in the Salem Laundry company, of which the deceased was founder. Probable annual income from the latter is stated to be $5000.

The will, executed last April, leaves the deceased's real property to a granddaughter, Jeannette Wieder, the devise being subject to prior contracts of sale. Nothing is left to the decedent's son, Van Wieder, who, the will states, is otherwise provided for. The residue, comprising all the personal property, is left to Mary Louise Adler, daughter of Mr. Wieder.

—CIRCUIT COURT—Lee Cordell Bell vs. Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance company; answer affirming and denying.

Amos C. Branch vs. industrial accident commission; order of dismissal, plaintiff's death having occurred over year ago and no attempt made to substitute heirs.

Keith Miles by T. M. Miles, guardian vs. Frederick B. and Theresa T. Andres; nonsuit to plaintiff.

Wasco Warehouse Milling company vs. Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation company; dismissal on stipulation.

State vs. Ray S. Maynard; order of forfeiture of 87 full and partially full bottles of liquor, mixing liquids, electric mixer, hot water heater, orange juicers, cash register, chairs, tables, ash trays, bar tools and glasses the property of the defendant as proprietor of the Wefoot club in Salem.

State vs. J. H. Plank; transcript from Salem justice court.

Thelma J. Hetland vs. George L. Hetland; default divorce decree incorporating property settlement granted.

State vs. Laverne DuMont; transcript from Salem justice court of criminal information charging assault and robbery being armed with a dangerous weapon.

Nona Stack vs. Lawrence Stack; amended complaint for divorce alleges cruel and inhuman treatment and asks custody of child, $20 monthly support money and $100 attorney's fee.

State vs. Irving T. Case; demurrer to indictments alleging it to be void from indefiniteness, and because it alleges a crime in more than one form and alleges more than one crime.

Beverly Kessler vs. Vernon Kessler; divorce complaint alleging cruel and inhuman treatment and asking half ownership of automobile, $25 monthly support money, attorney's fee and costs; married at Longview, Wash., January 26, 1940.

Jean Dalziel vs. Glen Dalziel; divorce complaint alleging cruel and inhuman treatment in which plaintiff asks return of name Jean Chapman; married March 16, 1932, in Salem.

—PROBATE COURT—Izella M. Donnell estate; petition of E. J. Wagoner for appointment as administrator, and J. C. Evans, F. Harlan and A. Krefl, appraisers, of $500 in personal property.

George Hiller estate; state inheritance tax receipt for $48.54.

Harold R. Irish estate; petition of Gladys Booth Irish, administratrix, for distribution of $1006.33 in cash and $4638 in stock and bonds as follows: to Gladys B. Irish as guardian of Patricia Jane Irish and George B. Irish, $1411.08; to Gladys B. Irish personally and as assignee of Edgar W. Irish and Harold B. Irish, $4233.25.

David G. Drager estate; final account of Lucrilia Drager, administratrix, shows receipts, $315.35, disbursements, $374.90, and deficit of $59.55 paid personally by administratrix.

Christine Kleinsmith estate; Walter R. Kleinsmith named administrator, and Warren A. Haskins, Ben F. Schrock and George C. Clark, appraisers, of $7400 in real property in Clackamas county and $3900 in personal property in Marion county.

Rudolph Zak estate; appraisal at $3800 in real and $2000 in personal property by John Doubrava, Andrew Koutny and John Bartos.

Archie Wigger estate; final account of Pioneer Trust company, administrator, shows receipts and disbursements of $233.09; final hearing set for April 1.

Sarah W. Mann estate; D. M. Smith, executor, authorized to substitute name of new grantee to property in Klamath Falls deeded by estate.

Mabel C. Creighton estate; final account of Jessie C. Creighton, executrix, shows receipts of $31,308.79, and disbursements of $5271.79, with balance of $26,037 on which inheritance tax is fixed at $1543.86.

Frank X. Basl estate; Frank S. Basl, a son, named executor, and E. A. Ditter, Ed Ditter, and Joe Wolf, appraisers, of $500 in real and $1000 in personal property; will cancels name of Frank S. Basl now in hands of maker and divides residue of estate equally among sons, including Frank, John, William and Ben; nothing is left to children of a deceased daughter because of limited amount of estate.

—JUSTICE COURT—Sidney W. Allen, speeding with

Newly Appointed McKinley School Monitors

Here's a group of high point students at the McKinley grade school who have recently been appointed monitors and who have charge of and direct student activities. They are (left to right, back row), Jerry Rogers, Elmer Kleinke, Milton Thompson, Jimmy Taylor, Joan Fitzmaurice, Mary Moynihan, Gloria Seay, Mary Flag and Nell Vickers; in the middle row (left to right) are Delbert Hunt, Bob Miller, Roger Welty, Edith Reynolds, Floyd Feddern, Mary Ann Stutebille, Roma Nelson and Barbara Jones; (front row, left to right) are Jackie Harr, Shirley Ann Fulton, Valerie Dunn and Elizabeth Simmons.

Sublimity Man Succumbs

Funeral Set Today for O. B. Hitchcock Who Knew Lincoln

Final rites will be held today for Orion Brooks Hitchcock, acquaintance of Buffalo Bill, Wild Bill and Calamity Jane, died Sunday at the home of his son, Stanley S. Hitchcock, near Sublimity at the age of 87.

friends on Lincoln's birthday that when he was a small lad the Civil war president had lifted him in his arms while addressing a Chicago audience.

In 1876 he married Ida Baker, who died in 1878. In 1888 he married Rosa Schwartz in St. Joseph, Mo.

He brought his family to Oregon in 1920 and in 1933 moved to the home of his son at Sublimity.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Lininger of Manitou Springs, Colo., son, Stanley S., and five grandchildren.

Guy L. Drill officiating. Interment will be in the City View cemetery.

SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Feb. 24.—(AP)—A 93-year-old woman who claimed childhood memories of Abraham Lincoln bouncing her on his knee died at her home here Monday.

She was Mrs. Nancy Ellen Kerr Kester, who told acquaintances her brother was a law partner of Lincoln while the family lived on a farm near Springfield, Ill., in 1850.

Mrs. Kester moved here in 1906. She also claimed acquaintanceship with Jesse James and Presidents James Garfield and Grover Cleveland.

Huge Telegram Poll Proves Success of Dodge Fluid Drive

Read what happened when we asked 5,000 Dodge buyers to wire what they like most about their 1941 Luxury Liners!

WE wanted to know how the big 1941 Dodge is going over with the nation's new-car buyers. And did we find out! When we asked 5,000 Dodge buyers to telegraph what they like most about this great car, telegrams fairly rained in!

BALTIMORE MAN WIRES "Have driven Dodge '41 Fluid Drive Sedan since October 21st ten thousand and sixty-four miles. Fastest, safest, soundest, most comfortable car I ever drove. Fluid Drive best ever. Brakes perfect. Engine powerful."

NEW YORK MAN SAYS "I like my new Dodge because of the very smart appearance and easy riding. I am more than pleased with my decision to buy my new Dodge with Fluid Drive because of effortless driving I now experience. Needless to say, my new 1941 Dodge is giving me the usual Dodge economy."

TENNESSEE MAN "Hard to express my personal reactions on any one or two features of my new 1941 Dodge. I never realized real WESTERN UNION advertisements featuring various Dodge car models and their features.

DODGE LUXURY LINER with our new Fluid Drive. High at Chemeketa St. HUBBARD MOTOR CO. Phone 4119

CAMEL advertisement: THE SMOKE OF SLOWER-BURNING CAMELS GIVES YOU EXTRA MILDNESS, EXTRA COOLNESS, EXTRA FLAVOR AND 28% LESS NICOTINE than the average of the 4 other largest-selling cigarettes tested—less than any of them—according to independent scientific tests of the smoke itself.