

Marriage Is Revealed Monday

Of interest to their many friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Willa Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Ellis of Salem, to Mr. Merle Smith of Boise, Idaho, formerly of Salem, son of Mrs. Jesse E. Smith of Salem.

The wedding was an event of November 2 at the First Methodist church in Seattle. For her wedding the bride wore a pastel blue suit and corsage of orchids. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis of Salem attended the couple.

Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Salem school and attended the Capital Business college. She is now employed at the public utilities commission. Mrs. Smith will leave shortly after the first of March for Boise where she will join her husband.

Mr. Smith attended Salem schools and Oregon State college. He is now in business in Boise.

The bride was hostess for a luncheon on Monday afternoon at the Golden Pheasant to tell her friends of her marriage. Clever favors revealing the news marked places for the guests. The table centerpiece was of yellow and orange ranunculus.

Places were laid for Miss Maxine Ord, Miss Shirley Shafer, Miss Eunice Mackey, Miss Marie Lippold, Miss Nell Markell, Mrs. E. F. Heider, Miss Frances Nelson and Mrs. Merle Smith.

Miss Margaret Wagner will preside at dinner tonight at her North Summer street home for members of the Tuesday night club.

Australian Beauty, New Star

Mauricette Melbourne

Once a concert pianist and a student at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts in London, Mauricette Melbourne, daughter of an Australian physician, has been selected to play the role of Rima in the film version of W. H. Hudson's classic "Green Mansions," to be screened by an independent producer. She was chosen partly for her gift of whistling, which Noel Coward once described as "the most exquisite thing he ever had heard. But if might be said that her whistling isn't the only thing exquisite about Mauricette.
