Mild Rally of Steels Turns Into Loss Near Closing

NEW YORK, Feb. 28-(A)-The stock market stepped out of February with mild rallying tendencies stressed mainly by a belated upswing in long dormant utilities.

Steels wavered and slipped af ter toughing off a quiet foreno advance. Except for the pow company issues, which pushe forward in the final hour, earli advances of fractions to a poi or so for industrials were substan tially reduced or cancelled at ti

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks managed to retain net recovery of .2 of a point 41.5, but on the month was dow .6. Transfers of 405,880 share were the largest since Feb. 20 an compared with 312,010 yesterday Motors backed down when was estimated this week's auto motive output was off about 100 units although predictions were that March assemblies would reach 525,000 which, except for 1929, would be a peak tically nothing available.

Among stocks Electric Power & Light preferred gained 3 points and upturns of fractions to a point or more were retained by Consolidated Edison, Public Service of NJ, North American, American Water Works, Peoples Gas and United Corp. preferred. Ahead also were Eastman Kodak, Woolworth, Santa Fe, Pennsylvania, Youngstown Sheet, Douglas Aircraft and Anaconda.

Wool in Boston

BOSTON, Feb. 28.—(AP)—(USDA)— Demand for the finer grades of South American wools continued good in Boston today. Recent arrivals have been heavy, but prices have remained firm. Medium and low cross-bred South American wools are also moving in greater volume. Very little spot domes-tic wool is being offered in Boston. Interest in domestic wools is confined mostly to contracting for the new wool clip.
