Dallas Women Hear Mackie

Religion Supervisor of Indian School Addresses WSCS

DALLAS-Women's society of the Christian Service of the Methedist church met Wednesday afternoon at the church. A no-host luncheon was served after which an interesting program was presented by Mrs. Paul Kitzmiller.

Worth Mackie, superintendent of religious work at the Chemawa Indian school, was presented and several of his pupils gave a program of talks, vocal solos and duets. Also on the program were two members from the Japanese church at Lake Labish.

About 50 were present for the meeting.

DALLAS-Mrs. Elmer Ray was hostess Wednesday for a meeting of group Two of the Sisterhood of the First Christian church. At the business meeting officers follows: Mrs. William H. Effenberger, president; Mrs. Joe Remington, vice-president; Mrs. Elmer Ray, secretary-treasurer. It was decided that the group would meet each third Wednesday of the month.

DALLAS-Mrs. John Uglow entertained with a smartly appointed dessert luncheon at her home Wednesday in honor of the members of her contract club. The group tables were centered with attractive arrangements of violets and daffodils.

Miss Carolyn Erlandson was a uest. Members present included Tracy Staats, Mrs. C. E. Staats, ing. Mrs. U. S. Loughary, Mrs. Riley Craven, Mrs. R. L. Chapman, Mrs.

Results showed that the pressure of approximately 50 pounds in the new water system was doubled when boosted through the pump. Two lines of 21/2 inch Scio Banker hose were easily accommodated by one of either pliable or hard suction hose.

Chief Albert Jensen fabricated the new fittings necessary to connect with the hydrants, which will be used when distance makes It inconvenient to use the water from either the mill race or Mill creek. Footings and foundation walls have been completed for the new fire station and construction will go forward as soon as weather permits. A crew of a dozen volunteers completed pouring the concrete foundation the first of the week.
