Methodism's Day of Compassion

$1,000,000 From 8,000,000 Set As Methodist Goal for Sunday

Some Methodist churches of the Salem district have already reached their quota of the $16,000 expected to be raised by churches of Washington, Oregon and Idaho for the Methodist Compassion Day, March 2, $1,000,000 fund. Dr. J. Edgar Purdy, superintendent of the Salem district, and Charles A. Rice, Portland lay leader, who are working on the campaign in this section, announced to Bishop Bruce R. Baxter, head of the Portland area. Methodism's motto for Sunday is "one million from eight million," members included in the 43,000 churches. Several denominations are using this day for similar purposes.

Lenten Series Scheduled

A series of Lenten addresses will be delivered at the American Lutheran church during the Lenten season beginning Sunday, March 2, under the general topic of "Voices from Calvary," according to Rev. P. W. Erikson. For almost 2000 years that great but homeless nation called Israel has been despised and rejected by Gentile neighbors. In all the records of man's inhumanity to man, no race has ever been treated with such consistent brutality. The answer is apparent, however. On that tragic day more than 1900 years ago, rulers of Israel crucified their only hope. It is the purpose in these sermons to examine the voices that brought Christ to the cross. These services may be heard over KSLM, 11 to 12 noon: March 2, "The Voice of Israel"; March 9, "Voice of the Gentile World"; March 16, "Voice of the Mob"; March 23, "Voice of the Roman Centurion"; March 30, "Voice of Magnificent Faith"; April 6, "The Voice of Christ's Concern Over Jerusalem"; April 13, "God's Voice is the Resurrection."

Services Slated For Passiontide

Following the customary practice, passiontide services will again be held at the Christ Lutheran church each Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock during the Lenten season. The pastor, Rev. F. H. Theuer, announces that meditations this year will be under the theme of "With Jesus in Gethsemane," each Thursday dealing with a particular incident connected with that occurrence. Topics with corresponding dates are: February 27, "The Way to Gethsemane"; March 6, "Agony in Gethsemane"; March 13, "Witnesses at Gethsemane"; April 3, "Departure from Gethsemane." Good Friday services will be at 7:30 p. m., with sermon on "Beneath the Cross of Calvary," and celebration of holy communion.

India Missionaries Teach Bible Class

Union Bible class meets every Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the Salvation Army citadel, 241 State street. Speakers next Tuesday night will be Mr. and Mrs. W. H. W. Faget of Bangalore, India, representing the Ceylon and India general mission. On other Tuesdays, Rev. S. E. Forsberg of Portland is bringing a series of studies on "The Church" as revealed in the book of Ephesians.

Series Continued Dr. Irving A. Fox, pastor of the First Baptist church, corner Marion and Liberty streets, will continue his Sunday night series of lectures on the "Book of Revelation" this Sunday with "After These Things or the End of the Church on Earth." These messages will continue until the final lecture on the night of June 22.

will use the chapel in Waller hall for the next two Sundays. Sunday school and Christian Endeavor groups will meet at the church in their usual meeting places and dismiss 15 minutes early to reach Waller hall in time for church. This Sunday at 6:15 p. m., the combined Christian Endeavor groups of the church will meet in the social hall of the church to hear reports given by 15 delegates attending preaching mission in Portland.

Church Sends Delegation

First Methodist church is sending a large delegation of young people to Portland for the week-end Christian mission. Eighteen junior and senior high school youths, with Miss Ruth Cramer, director of religious education, have registered for the entire weekend. They are Edward Porter, Joan Palleke, Marcia Moore, Patty Zeller, Esther Porter, Vicki Smothers, Jean Carlin, Mary Bennett, Betty Provost, Bob Bennett, Marjorie Bergsvik, Marian Apelin, Winsor Acton, Frank Bennett, Mary Ruth Smothers, Ruth Bain, Ross Palleke, and Jane Actor. University Vespers and business and professional young people have registered 21, and it is believed that around 50 young people from this one church will come to Portland for the week-end under the influence of the great world leaders who are conducting the mission in Portland.

First church is observing with other Salem district churches, "March to Church With Us in March." Sunday will be special men's day. Dr. Harrison will preach Sunday morning on "With Mercy and Compassion" and the cathedral choir will sing "Sanctus" by Gounod with Dean Melvin Geist taking the tenor solo part. Mrs. Gladys Thomas will sing the morning solo, "Come Ye Blessed" by Scott. That night the special quartet will sing "Come Holy Spirit, it" Flagger, and "Praise the Lord Ye Heavens," Smart. Dr. Harrison will preach on "The Wayside Ministry of Jesus."
