

Aurora Woman Is Honored

Children Are Present at 90th Birthday Anniversary

AURORA—Mrs. Henrietta Will was honored Sunday night with a 5 o'clock dinner on her 90th birthday at her home by her children and grandchildren, all of whom were present with the exception of one granddaughter and great granddaughter, Mrs. Tony Jensen and Nancy of Portland, who were ill with the measles.

Present were Mrs. Henrietta Will, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Will of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Will, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ehlen, Aurora; grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Woodhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Bicker, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hurst, Aurora; Dick Will, Eugene; great grandchildren,

Statesman 90th Anniversary Plans Told Mt. Angel Club

MT. ANGEL—Business discussions were waived at the Business Men's club luncheon at the Mt. Angel hotel Monday noon, so that members and guests could enjoy the music played by four little Salem girls, Luella LaFontaine, June Stowell, Gloria Landoc and Jacqueline Van Loh.

The youngsters, students of Priscilla Meisinger Art Studios, played solos, duets and four-piece arrangements on their piano-acordians, winning applause of the club. Accompanying the children to Mt. Angel were Mrs. Meisinger, Mrs. Albert Seeley, and Mrs. Miller B. Hayden.

Because of the entertainment it was also "ladies day" at the luncheon. Women guests included Mrs. Fred Prosser, Mrs. Al Wilde, Mrs. Leo Schwab, Mrs. N. G. Mickel, Mary Adelman, Mrs. Louis LeDoux, Mrs. E. B. Cotman, Margaret Walton, Loreta Dahler, Mrs. Ed Unger and Mrs. Peter Goes.

Jim Kelly and Robert Sprague of The Oregon Statesman were introduced and Kelly talked briefly of the 90th anniversary edition of The Statesman which is to appear March 30 and of the part Mt. Angel will be given in the issue. In referring to the flax industry, he spoke of R. J. Hendricks, former Statesman editor, who dedicated his time and pa-

Victor Point Club Meets

VICTOR POINT — Mrs. J. J. Doerfler was hostess for an all day meeting of the McAlpin Stitches' club Thursday. Quilting was done for the hostess and a bountiful covered dish luncheon was served at noon.

Kitchen Shower Sponsored

SWEGLA — Swegle Woman's club met recently at the home of Mrs. Otis Dawes on Garden road, with Mrs. Elmer Lake assistant hostess. Sixteen members and three guests, Mrs. Ida Riesland, Mrs. Leslie Carron and Mrs. Granville Sheets, were present.

At the program hour a contest for points remembered from an article read from Readers Digest was won by Mrs. Charles McCullah.

St. Patrick's day decorations were used by the hostesses.

The club will sponsor a tea towel shower for the school kitchen.

Farmers Union News

LIBERTY—Harley Libby, state Farmers Union president, and Mrs. Pauline Johnson, state secretary, were guests of the Liberty local last Tuesday night. Each spoke briefly, as did Oscar Johnson, Libby installed the new officers, F. McCauley, president, and H. L. Clark, vice president, and reports from delegates to the recent state convention were heard.

Refreshments were served in the dining room in charge of Mrs. John Dusch, Mrs. Lon Shuttleworth and Mrs. Roy Farrand.

Play Given At Swegle

SWEGLA—The play "Statistically Yours," which was presented by high school students at the school house Friday night for a community night program was well attended.

Students dedicated their program to "the Oldies of Swegle community."

The cast included Glenna McKinney, Pauline Standley, Edith Starla, Donald Huckstrap, Margie Blanchard, Raymond Koch, Phyllis Ames, June Porter, Gladys Dalke, Jim Linhart.

Musical selections were cello solos, Margaret Smith with her mother, Mrs. Ruel Smith at the piano; duet, guitar and mandolin, Gladys Dalke and Donna Starr; vocal solo, June Porter, flute solo, Edith Stark with Mrs. Cecil Stark at the piano.

Mrs. Minnie Dalke and Mrs. William McKinney served refreshments at the close of the program.

Grange Social Held At Union Hill

UNION HILL—At the grange social Saturday night six tables of 500 were in play. Mrs. Lawrence Roberts of Turner won high score for women; Jimmie Darby high score for men. Low score prize went to Mrs. W. H. Rabens. Verry Scott won the traveling prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford White and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tate were in charge.
