Attend Scout Circus—Eight members of Boy Scout troop 4, sponsored by the First Christian church, were driven to Seattle by David Leek, West Salem bus driver, where they participated in the 19th annual scout circus held there over the weekend. More than 8000 scouts were present. The Salem scouts were guests of troops 144 and 160 of the Revanna district. While in Washington they also visited the university of Washington campus, Sand Point naval air base, Boeing field, the scene of the ill-fated Narrows bridge at Tacoma and the capitol at Olympia. Making the trip were Norman Mann, George Leslie, Ed Jackson, Alan Cannon, Earl Hunt, Charles Updegraff, Dick Hill and George McKinley, assistant scoutmaster and Rex Wirt, scoutmaster.

Recommend Markers—The placing of survey stakes along the right of way of the North Santiam highway east of Detroit, taken over last week from Marion and Linn counties by the state highway commission, was recommended Monday in a letter from Road Engineer Oscar Cutler to Chief Highway Engineer R. H. Baldock, copy of which was sent to the Marion county court. Right of way stakes will show the existence of present encroachments on the right of way, removal of which, as a condition precedent of the state's acceptance of the road for maintenance. Marion county has already agreed to provide the state with photostatic copies of the right of way agreements affecting the section of the highway given the state.

Case Postponed Indefinitely—County Judge Hewlett said Monday that he could not consider from the evidence given that Wesley Lee Shannon, recently certified to the juvenile court by Justice of the Peace Felton in connection with an automobile larceny charge, was guilty of any offense and that he still believed that there was nothing in the evidence to show that the boy is not innocent. The court issued an order showing that the matter was "continued until further order of the court" which Hewlett stated was in the nature of an indefinite postponement.

Sergeant Schaltz, who is the son of Mrs. Sally A. Schaltz, of route two, Salem, was graduated from Salem high school in 1924. In June, 1935 he enlisted in the engineer corps. He has been in the air corps since August 1, 1936. At present he is a member of the 59th material squadron at Hamilton Field, where he is on duty as Aircraft inspector.

City Hall Gets Temporary Heat

The city hall got heat Monday for the first time in a week as workmen made temporary installation of an oil burner in the city hall's new $1100 furnace.

The temporary installation was made when it was learned the burner ordered by the city, expected Saturday, was not shipped until Monday.

Oil left over from a period in 1927 when the city tried out an oil burner will be probably sufficient to heat the building all this summer. About 500 gallons were left in the tank when the city decided to return to burning wood.

Sen. McKay and Highway Group Ask South River Road Aid

A general appeal for support of the South River road improvement program projected by the Salem-Independence-Kings Valley Highway association was made Monday in the regular chamber of commerce meeting here by Senator Douglas McKay of Salem and by members of the highway association. McKay characterized the road as "second highest in the country in travel" and "first of all county roads in number of hazards."

Present improvement of the highway, he said, depends on acceptance by the city of Salem and by Marion county of WPA grants already approved amounting to over $139,000.

The immediate problem is to obtain the city council's approval of an $8000 appropriation for purchase of right-of-way on Owens street, he declared. Senator McKay stated that $2000 has already been subscribed personally by interested individuals of a total of $10,000 deemed necessary to acquire the required property within the Salem city limits.

Delay in accepting the WPA grant, Senator McKay stated, would be fatal to the road improvement, at least for some time. He characterized the project as a worthy expenditure of public funds.

Dr. Maurice Butler, Independence mayor, also spoke in favor of the highway improvement, and explained that it would open a route for the south-Marion county and south-Polk county district into Salem.

Dr. Butler also declared that the proposed bridge across the Willamette at or near Independence was necessary to people in his district, but was also a national defense item of importance, particularly with the possibility that a large army camp might be located between Monmouth and Corvallis.

He outlined the offer of Marion and Polk counties to the state highway commission, whereby the two counties would contribute $125,000 over a 25-year period for financing of the span.

E. L. Gray, president of the highway association, presided at the meeting. Independence guests present, in addition to Dr. Butler, included Dr. George D. Herley, M. M. Nelson, Independence city councilmen; John E. Black, city recorder, and Ralph H. Kletzing, Independence publisher.
