

Proposal of New School for Gore District Is Defeated

LEBANON—A proposal for a new building to cost in the neighborhood of $8000 was defeated at a special election held in the Gore district. The vote was 31 against and seven for the new school house.

There are now 38 students in a one-room building. Two teachers are employed and a partial partition of plywood separates the classes. No alternative was stated on the ballot and the question in many minds now is whether another election may not have to be held to vote on the question of an addition.

Five students will complete the eighth grade work in the school this year but it is to be expected that at least that many new pupils will enter next fall because the farms in this neighborhood are being subdivided into acreage tracts and many new families are moving in.

Many think that the district should be included in the Lebanon district as it lies just outside of the city limits. It is taken for granted that a new grade school will have to be built in Lebanon soon. Many in the Gore district do not want to be included in district 16, the Lebanon district, because they reason they would then have to help build this new schoolhouse. Others think it would be a more efficient arrangement and cost no more than to build a new building on the edge of town and hire teachers.

Lester Billings, Carleton Mary and Willis Carter are the board in the Gore district with Mrs. Cyrus McCormick, clerk. The election board was made up of Fred Warnke, Mrs. Lester Billings and Mrs. Alfred Rucker with Mrs. Charles Mitchell, clerk.

Mrs. Helen Bellinger was re-elected for next year and Mrs. Laura Powell will take the place left vacant by the resignation of Miss Dorothy Langmack.

LEBANON—Every hundredth baby born in the Lebanon hospital is given a silver spoon by the hospital staff. The 700th born in the new building was Larry Dale, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robertson. He weighed eight pounds when born, April 7th. Earlier that day a daughter, weighing five pounds 13 1/2 ounces was born to Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Lamp, route 2, Lebanon.

April 1, a son, Ronald Gene was born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nelson and a daughter, Shirley Irene to Mr. and Mrs. Adam Lough, Crabtree. April 3 two babies were born, a son, Ward Russell, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur White, Lebanon, and a daughter, Shirley Deane, to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Menear, Sweet Home. April 5 a son, Larry Vance, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Vance Vollmer, Sweet Home.

LEBANON—During the past year the Mountain States Power company has put down several test wells in the vicinity of Lebanon in an effort to find better water for the city. Now they have a crew of 20 men laying 10-inch pipes from the well near the Southern Pacific trestle east of town. This 92-foot well has a good flow and it will be used to supplement the regular city supply this season. If the experiment is successful, other wells may be used. The pipes will run to the city limits and along Grant street to Walnut, Hiatt and Grove streets, where connection will be made with the mains. A banquet was held at the Lebanon hotel to honor John Summers, who has been retired after 37 years service with the Southern Pacific. He has been in charge of this station since February, 1918. Rice Blackburn, Francis Wiley and Gary Ellnberg, who worked with him here, planned the function. Many business men of Lebanon, other friends and railroad officials attended.

A. A. Michels, Salem, district freight agent, was toastmaster. Among those making informal talks in response were: Carl Taylor, assistant general freight agent; William Sutherland, chief clerk from the office of the general passenger agent and George Nelson, chief dispatcher of the Southern Pacific; former senator, S. M. Garland; Senator J. C. Booth and Elmer Fitzgerald.

LEBANON—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Youngberg, James Youngberg and their sister, Mrs. Howard Collins left Saturday for Hill Springs, Alberta, Canada, upon receipt of a telegram telling them of the death of their mother. The funeral was to be held Monday.

Twenty-eight high school students, who have attended the Presbyterian camp at Long Bow, were entertained at a turkey dinner Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Cryus McCormick.

Maxine Brattain, Ivis Bennett and Bertie Jacobson will represent the Lebanon Junior Woman's club at the state convention in Myrtle Point, April 20. Mrs. Jacobson is the contact chairman for this unit.
