Pick-ups from the Foul Line

Now that the Statesman's first annual singles tournament is history, we would like to take this opportunity to thank all the bowlers for the enthusiastic way they responded for this event, and express our appreciation to the management of the Perfection alleys, Joe Coe and Hi Haman, for the hard work and fine cooperation they gave us. And some people just don't seem to have a lick of sense. Take Scotchman Marr for instance. Always seemed to be a pretty normal sort of a person, Wednesday night he lost complete control of himself and rolled 648 (first time in his life he broke 600). The man is crazier than "Maizie" Gemmell. Probably hasn't a friend left after making such a spectacle of himself ... and Clines "five old gentlemen" got up from their easy chairs long enough to put Copelands "young upstarts" in their place (thanks to Ellsworth Hartwell's eagle eye) ... and Henry Barr, with 623, is fully recovered from his recent flu attack ... Don Young whittled out a 617 ... and Hartwell and Kellogg each had 604 . . . and Acme auto sure talks a good game . . . and Karrs and Clines ABC squads tangle on the Perfection alleys this afternoon.

SCOOP ON SIPS! Ellsworth "Short-circuit" Hartwell, is now entitled to all the rights, lights, and benefits of the FT&BA, having had the balance of his molars removed last week. (Sips-please credit when copying.)

And Jim Clark is just a sore head. After spending all his life trying to fall below 400, he go plumb disgusted with himsel Monday night and rolled a 265 game and 603 series (All extra copies of the Statesman were sold out Tuesday morning-evidently Jim bought all the spare copies to mail to his frends ... and Bob Parker would kick his best friend in the teeth for a dime . . . and Le Tallman breezed in with 572,

And those pesky Mary-Do continue to make life miserab for the league leaders in the I dustrial ... and Johnny Bone h 586 ... and Rupe Hart was clo behind with 585 ... and the bankers finally overhauled Su dins in the Mercantile, and o it without the assistance of o Mr. Strench, who places wom before bowling. He'll outgrowe about the time he gets old enou to shave ... and Densmore, t "Scio Slicker." was all set to things, but folded in the last gar for a 568 ... and the Statesma Sdo match was a killer-diller, t Scio boys taking the first gar by one pin, the printers the second by one pin, and Scio coming back in the third to win decisively by two pins, with Slover doing his best to give all three to the publishers.

Kreevich will not respond, although Tebbetts has a hunch Kreevich is listening because he has detected a trace of a smile at some particularly clever sally. The other gent on whom Birdie feels he is wasting his time is Jimmy Foxx. Foxx is amiable as they come. So much so, in fact, that he will carry on a conversation even when swinging at the ball. When Foxx would hit one out of the park and remark casually as he started for first: "I'll tell you the rest when I get back," or would finish a sentence as he crossed home plate, Birdie decided the results might be better if he gave Jimmy the silent treating to all corners of the field. He has his own methods of showing his displeasure at umpires' decisions. A few days ago, an umpire called a pitch a ball, and turned, said something to the um-
