

Easter Day in the Morning

By Maxine Buren

This Easter morning will find thousands of the good people of the Willamette valley flocking to church, eager to show appreciation of the many blessings they enjoy. Worship will be a little more serious, a little more sincere than usual this morning, because we in the Americas recognize the blessings that have somehow been allotted to us.

And after the church services, devoted to spiritual rejoicing, families will gather around the table to enjoy dinner together. Easter is no time for entertaining company, but it's the day when intimate groups gather around a family board, to enjoy the company of those they've known and loved forever.

This year many a family will thank its lucky star for ancestors who braved the wild Atlantic to find peace and quiet in this new world.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, jr., will be among those entertaining at dinner today. Their daughter, Marylee, will be home from the University of Oregon. The dinner will honor her birthday and that of Mr. Milton L. Meyers. Others at the table will be Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Dr. and Mrs. Milton Steiner and children, Jean, Ann and Milton Lee, of Portland, Mrs. Walter Denton, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers and Dan Fry.

Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Clements will have as their Easter dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Campbell of Oakland, Ore., Dr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell and their two children.

Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, jr., will entertain with a family dinner and their out-of-town guests will be their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Buck, of Portland.
