With Salem Folk at OSC

By ISABEL MCGILCHRIST

The first all-school formal of spring term will be held next Saturday night in the Memorial Union when Scabbard and Blade honor society sponsors its annual Military Ball. Committees in charge of details have been making plans for the affair for several weeks, with Jean Hollstein as chairman of the features.

The second Northwest Agriculture conference was held at Oregon State last weekend with college representatives gathering for a two-day session of tours, exhibits, lectures and a climactic banquet. Quentin Zielinski headed the publications forum during the convention.

A new idea was started last weekend at OSC when the first all-school mixer was held in the Memorial Union ballroom, with games, dances and a quiz program highlighting the evening. Making up the attendance list were Elizabeth Ann Herrick, Ilene Paulson, Ruth Anunson, Eileen Blundell, Jack Hayes, Tom Hill, Walt Bushnell and Bill Smith.

With sorority and fraternity pledging in order, it is noted that Florence Upjohn is now wearing the pledge ribbon of Tri-Delt and Oscar Paulson that of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Secretarial science majors who have maintained a high grade point average were honored Tuesday night with an informal coffee given by members of Phi Chi Theta honor society. Eileen Holden was included in the guest list.

In the sports field this week Bill Shinn was named captain of the half-mile rook track team that is now competing with high schools throughout the state. Jean Hollstein as a member of the OSC varsity crew is still getting in hours of practice and competition, having defeated the University of British Columbia last weekend.

Odds and ends . . . Frances Ann Mott writing a spring fashion script for radio station, KOAC. . . Marjorie McCallister, as a member of Euterpe Singers, entertaining at the OSC Dad's club banquet in Marshfield. . . Eileen Holden as a leader of the Phi Kappa Phi geology forum Tuesday. . . Peggy Reinholdt and Betty Jean Thomas visiting in Corvallis this week. . . Eleanor Rosson at Fort Lewis last weekend for Army Day. . . George Causey attending this week's meeting of Hell Divers campus swimming society.

Mrs. Wilmer C. Page will entertain today for Michigan and Minnesota where she will visit with her sister, Mrs. Roy Crowley of St. James, Minnesota. Mrs. Page will be accompanied east by another sister, Mrs. Roy Pierce of Seattle. The two matrons will pick up a car in Flint and will drive home sometime in May.

Mrs. Kenneth Potts, Mrs. Robert Joseph, Mrs. Leon Perry, Mrs. Robert Needham, Mrs. Edward Roth, Mrs. Edward O. Stadter, jr., and Mrs. Reynolds Allen will be among those going to Portland Wednesday to be the luncheon guests of Mrs. Peter Buck at her home.

Shower for Miss Swift Monday

Miss Eleanor Swift, who will be married on April 26 to Lt. Roger Putnam, was the honor guest at a surprise shower last night when the Spinsters met at the home of Miss Barbara Compton.

The serving table was covered with a pink organdy cloth over white and the centerpiece was of white lilacs and tulips flanked by tall white tapers. Assisting Miss Compton at the supper hour were Miss Mary Ellen Hammond and Miss Alice Unruh.

During the evening the group made plans for the second annual decorated table display to be held on April 23 at the Marion hotel. All interested persons are invited to enter the show and judges will be Mrs. B. O. Schucking, Miss Elizabeth Lord and Mr. Charles Lesch.

Attending the affair were Miss Dorothea Corey, Miss Esther Baird, Miss Doris Drager, Miss Shirley Evenson, Miss Mary Ellen Hammond, Miss Kay Laughridge, Miss Margaret Wagner, Miss Margaret Simms, Miss Wilma Jerman, Miss Charlotte McClary, Miss Sybil Spears, Miss Helen Langille, Miss Bobbe Shinn, Miss Alice Unruh and Miss Compton.

Miss Cannon Feted at Dinner

A delightful affair of Monday night was the informal dinner party for which Miss Josephine Bross, Miss Marjorie Knox and Miss Cleo Saueressig were hostesses at the former's apartment on Court street. The party was a surprise for Miss Catherine Cannon, who is leaving this month for Seaside to make her home with her parents.

Miss Cannon has been employed at the public utilities commission and the guests honored her with an au revoir shower.

Old fashioned nosegays of pastel spring flowers centered the individual tables. The evening was spent informally.

Honoring Miss Cannon were Miss Marie Patton, Miss Annabelle Bennett, Miss June Curtis, Miss Mildred Darr, Miss Frances Nelson, Miss Rosemary Snyder, Miss Kay Morrow, Miss Alice Putnam, Mrs. Martha Brady, Miss Marjorie Knox, Miss Cleo Saueressig, Miss Betty Templeton and Miss Josephine Bross.

Class Members Entertained

Mrs. Roy Barker opened her country home, near Zena, Saturday afternoon to the members of the eighth grade graduating class and their teacher of Zena school.

Urns of spring blossoms were used for decorations about the rooms. A novel arrangement of pastel balloons formed a centerpiece for the table. A luncheon was served and gifts were presented to each guest by the hostess. Games were enjoyed by the group during the afternoon. Mrs. Lloyd Perkins, Salem, assisted with the serving.

Present were: Miss Nowewiewski, teacher, Evelyn Eitel, Arden Sheppard, June Swinford, Shirley Newton, Sammy Barker, a special guest, Harold Swinford, Mrs. Perkins and the hostess, Mrs. Barker.
