Salem Residents Flee Hotel Fire

Fire Monday morning routed Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Thomas and their son, Carvel, 30, all of Salem, from their rooms in the Hawthorne House, a Seattle hotel, it was learned here Tuesday. Mrs. Thomas was overcome by smoke. The Thomases were warned by the hotel fire alarm and hurried from their rooms. When the younger Thomas reached the street, he could not find his parents and hurried back into the building. He found his mother had been overcome by smoke, and his father was trying to carry her to safety. Firemen carried her from the hotel. Five persons were rescued and 40 others escaped unaided from the hotel. No one was injured.—Photo courtesy Seattle Times and Seattle Bureau of Associated Press.

Izaak Walton League Names Directors, Swaps Stories

SILVERTON—Election of two directors to complete the board of five was the principal business of the Izaak Walton League chapter meeting held at the chamber of commerce rooms Monday.

The three directors who had been elected at a previous meeting were the president, W. C. Bachman; vice-president, Edwin Overlund, and secretary-treasurer, H. B. Latham. Norris Ames and Dr. P. A. Loar were elected Monday. Dr. Loar is a state director.

Besides a number of "tall tales" about first day fishing, plans were discussed for future projects. A bass and duck lake not too far from Silverton was considered as well as cleaning up the retention pond in the Izaak Walton league park and planting additional fir seedlings there this summer. Re-forestation of old logged off land was discussed. Definite action on projects was postponed.

Fishermen at the meeting reported very good luck over the weekend. Those who had been able to make it to the Alsea "fishermen's paradise" were particularly full of stories of "limits" caught. Many reported that they had had exceptionally good luck in the little Drift creek stream near Silverton. It was estimated by some who had fished Drift creek Sunday that at least 1000 fish had been taken out of it Sunday, leaving fishing there not quite so good for the remainder of the season. Other fishermen reported that some of the over-flow trout planted in Silver creek had not more than two weeks ago had been caught Sunday about six miles from where they had been released.

SILVERTON—Mrs. S. A. Pit-

ney, president of the American Legion auxiliary, reports that the auxiliary will have its own crawfish "feed" Saturday night when the Legionnaires have their annual Crawfish supper and entertainment at Silverton.

Visiting and local wives and auxiliary members will meet at the banquet room of George's cafe, where both a buffet supper and entertainment will be furnished. Myrtle Lorenson is in charge of the entertainment. Allie Heidenstrom is general chairman. Assisting Mrs. Heidenstrom will be Erma Demas, Floy Morgan, Louise Wagner, Rebecca Barber and Christine Curran.

SILVERTON—Mrs. Howard Long was hostess to the Past Presidents club of the American Legion auxiliary at its April meeting. Easter decorations were used on the luncheon table.

SILVERTON—The Silverton Amateur club will go to the CCC camp Wednesday to give a program. The club is under the direction of Lyle Hughes, president.

SILVERTON—C. A. Howard, president of Oregon College of Education, Monmouth, compared education of other times with present day methods when he spoke before the Silverton Rotary club Monday. Mr. Howard also spoke at school assemblies.
