April Handy Month for Parties

April is a month of something beside showers and the anticipation of May flowers. It's a month full of memories for the historian, for the followers of special holidays and for even the family cook, for there are many many new things to remember to buy for the menu in April.

Every day's a holiday, an excuse to celebrate, a reason for fancy cakes and special fare.

This month of showers in 1792 saw Alexander Hamilton establish the mint; April, 1818, witnessed the adoption of our present flag; April, 1513, welcomed Ponce de Leon to our shores, and April 14th was Pan-American day. Arbor day, Bird day, Army day, Patriot's day-all fall in April, as do birthdays of the

SOME LIKE 'EM HOT, some like 'em cold, but we'll take our beans in little pots topped with a thick slice of sugar-cured pork loaf (the kind that comes in a 12-ounce can ready to serve). Of course, the beans, the spiced peaches, and the brown bread, too, are from the canned foods shelf. So this old-fashioned meal is very up-to-date in satisfying the modern woman's need for real service.

The slices of sugar-cured pork may be pan fried and placed on the hot beans or placed on the beans without browning to the service.
