Turner beat Peterson, Peterson beat Turner, Kahut beat Peterson, Proctor beat Turner, Kahut beat Proctor, Turner beat Kahut.

Just who the blazes IS the best middleweight boxer in Oregon?

Yeah, I know. Turner has the championship again. But does his history, which includes beatings from both Peterson and Proctor, indicate he is the best fighter of the foursome?

When Turner fights as he fought in almost tearing Ka-hut's head from his body Tuesday night, there is no question but what he is far, far superior to any of the other three. But how is one to know when Lee "The Lion" is going to roar and when he's going to purr?

If the black panther, the ebony tiger or, if you must, "The Lion," would wade into ex-middleweight champion Al Hostak when and if they meet here in August, he might easily gain himself a national reputation. But will he? -0-

Second Setback.

Meantime, how much will the terrific beating he took effect the theretofore promising career of Terrible Tony Kahut? The Woodburn boy, who appeared to be drawn just a bit too fine and who never was given a chance by Turner, was knocked as cold as a nazi notice for the second time

Kahut's first flounder in the resin came in his second fight, three years ago. The blow that sent him into oblivion was administered by Ted Peterson, Buddy's elder brother.

Tony came back for better things after catching that punch of Ted's, but the punches he Freitas, who registered his secon caught from Turner weren't the win of the season. Ted's toss numbed him. Los Angeles Turner's sprawled him as life- Sacramento less, outwardly, as a Mexican at siesta time. Leo's lams may cause Freitas and Wieczorek, Gardne Kahut to lose zest for the pugilis- (8). tic parade.

On the other hand, Tony may become a better fighter because of the severe lacing. At any rate, he'll probably have opportunity to show whatever difference it may have made. It is probable he will again be matched with iers put together doubles by Whi Powder Proctor, the winner to get and Scarsella and a single b Forced Turner.

It is the opinion of Pappy Salkeld, who promotes the VFW baseman who previously ha fights which have been bang-up played every inning of every gam throughout this year, that Farmer for two consecutive years, was or John Friend beat his own boy in dered from the diamond in th insisting that Turner make weight first inning by Umpire George for Kahut.

"If John had taken the fight without any mention of forfeit money or weights, as did Powder Proctor, Kahut would still be champion," said Salkeld after the battle.

"Friend forced Turner to get in shape. Everytime Turner has been in condition he's almost killed his opponent, you know that. Well, he lose the $50 forfeit money."

Proposal Backed

Happy Howard Maple's proposal, that the Western International increase its salary limit by $100 and its player limit by one Dapper, Brenzel (6). rookie, has been given acquiesence by one more loop spot. Yakima, where Goldie Holt is back in the saddle, reports it is in favor of the move, while Spokane, who backed a similar proposal a year ago, has Salem Matches always been for it . . . Just one more vote, Happy Howard, and you'll have your extra rookie.

The lads on the Senator squad don't quite understand how come Gordie Lieb, the elongated hurler an option here from Portland, is a righthander . . . He talks and acts, they say, entirely southpaw.

"We didn't cancel our traditional Thanksgiving day game with Whitman," says Spec Keene, Bearcat grid boss . . . "Nig Borleske, when apprised of the fact that our Hawaiian trip would be injured by keeping our engagement with Whitman, magnanimously offered to call the game off."

Silverton High Golfers Slate

SILVERTON - Coach Roy Goates' golfers of Silverton high, with two victories to their credit, are preening for play with Gresham, Parkrose and Salem. The Salem matches are set for May 9 here and May 16 there. Arrangements for the other dates have not been completed.

This is Silverton high school's Gage first organized golf team, although Goates conducted a high school golf class last spring. The two tournaments were at Woodburn, with the first one going 111/2 to 1/2 to Silverton and the second one 12 to 0, also favoring Silverton.

olay were E. Hartman 44, B. Dickman 46, and W. Adams 46. For Woodburn were Schrock, Miller and Hicks each with 53. Silverton's team is composed of Bob Dickman, Ernest Hartman, Wallace Adams, Kenneth Hartman, Dick Adams, Don Walker, Alvin Dahlen, Ted Finlay, Bob Oeder, Boy May, Kenneth Matheson and Kenneth Coke.

Prince Ilaki and Jack Kizer went to a fall each draw in a riotous opener. Ilaki used a crab to bag his and Kizer a press.

Valsetz Opens Season Sunday

DALLAS-The Valsetz Loggers open their Portland Valley league schedule on their home field Sunday, with an opponent yet to be named. They were originally slated to meet the 18th Engineers, but the soldiers have been moved and the league has not yet named a replacement.

The Valsetz Rod and Gun club, which is sponsoring the game, has sent invitations to Governor Charles A. Sprague and Secretary of State Earl Snell.

Dave Dixon, manager-catcher, is in charge of the team.
