Hospital Owners Confer on Auto License Fee With State Board

A group of Oregon hospital owners conferred with members of the state industrial accident commission here Wednesday, in of a 1941 legislative act under which vehicle drivers license fee will from the Portland Council of Hospitals.

Hospitals mentioned in the letter include Emanuel, Good Samaritan, St. Vincent's, Portland General, Coffey Memorial and Hahnemann.

Ward service will be increased from $3 to $4 a day, the surgery charge from $10 to $15 and other service in proportion.

Accident commission members said they already had fixed the employers contribution rates for the next year with the result that the increased hospital charges would have to come out of revenues based on present operating costs.

"There is nothing we can do about it other than meet the increase," C. M. Ryerson, a member of the commission declared.

The letter indicated that the increased hospital charges also apply to all patients and are not restricted to industrial accident commission cases.
