

Plans Made For Banquet

Legion Auxiliary Sets Dinner Date, Considers Annual Poppy Sale

WEST SALEM — The Kingwood American Legion auxiliary met at the Legion hall Thursday evening.

Plans were made for a Mother's day dinner to be given at the hall May 8 and to invite ladies from the Methodist old people's home in Salem as special guests.

A meeting will be held in Portland May 1 for auxiliary members, at which the national president will be present. A luncheon will be served at the Heathman hotel for visiting delegates.

The annual poppy sale will be held May 23 and 24. The auxiliary will cooperate with the Legion in sponsoring a strawberry festival, for which the date will be announced later.

Mrs. Harry Hunt and Mrs. Vern Axelson joined the unit. Other members present were Mrs. George Combs, Mrs. Floyd White, Mrs. E. J. Dietz, Mrs. Kasper Neiger, Mrs. P. R. Orchard, Mrs. Karl Mobley, Mrs. Ted Lengele, Mrs. Fannie Smith, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. O. B. Long, Mrs. Ray Lacey, and a guest, Joan Orchard.

The post joined the auxiliary for refreshments, and Mrs. Karl Mobley, Mrs. E. J. Dietz, Mrs. Floyd White, Mrs. Kasper Neiger and Mrs. P. R. Orchard served as hostesses.

The Jolly Cookers club met at the home of Mrs. Leighton Dashiell on Thursday. The girls studied food prices and a prize was presented to Delores Hathaway for having prepared the most recipes since the last meeting.

Fred Kuhn left last week for an indefinite visit with relatives in Nebraska.

WEST SALEM — The WSCS of the Methodist church is having an all day sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. D. T. Bradford, 1161 Second street, Wednesday. The ladies plan to work on bazaar articles.

All the secretaries and vice-presidents are asked to be present at 11 o'clock to make out a quarterly report. A no-host luncheon will be served at noon. Mrs. G. E. Vosburgh, president, is calling a special business meeting preceding the missionary study on "Dangerous Opportunities."

The local grade school boys' softball team defeated Liberty 8 to 4 in a game played at Liberty Friday.

Mrs. Paul Parker was taken to the Deaconess hospital Friday. She injured her back while skating at the Mellow Moon roller rink Wednesday.

WEST SALEM — Mrs. H. D. Hamm entertained the members of the Kingwood Garden club at her home on Kingwood avenue Thursday with a dessert luncheon.

They discussed flowers and plants and made plans for a silver tea to be held at the home of Mrs. John S. Friesen, May 1. Present were Mrs. Paul Lee, Mrs. A. F. Goffrier, Mrs. Harry Bonney, Mrs. Cecil Manning, Mrs. Clara Miller, Mrs. Tom Dalke, Mrs. Hamblen, Mrs. John Friesen, Mrs. James Monaco, Mrs. Al Landry, Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman and a special guest, Mrs. Pearson.

The Tuesday Luncheon club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Archie Cameron. The hostess was presented with several gifts by those attending who were Mrs. Harry Turpin, Mrs. Glenn Davenport and Mrs. Ivan Wood.

D. I. Henderson returned this week from a trip to Nebraska to visit relatives. Mrs. Henderson, who accompanied her husband, stopped en route home to visit their daughter, Mrs. Thomas Alcorn, at Nampa, Idaho.

The city planning board, which was appointed by Mayor Guy Newgent at the last council meeting, met Wednesday for an organization meeting. Tom Dalke was elected president and John S. Bowne secretary. A definite program has not been outlined but tentative plans include zoning to establish classification in building areas and to promote the bringing of industry to the city.

Members of the city planning board are Tom Dalke, J. M. Six, J. S. Bowne, Elmer Cook and Max Gehlman, who represent the building, city, mercantile and canning interests.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Jackman

Rev. and Mrs. Don Huckabee accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Preston Faught on a trip to Portland Wednesday. While there they visited Frank Lightfoot, sr., and Mrs. J. W. Simmons, who are patients in hospitals.

Daughter Born

UNIONVALE — Mr. and Mrs. Dan Clark, Portland, are the parents of a 6½ pound daughter born Tuesday. She has been named Margaret Glee. This is their first child. Mrs. Clark, who before her marriage was Thelma Powell, is a niece of Mrs. E. M. Alderman.

Has 91st Birthday

HUBBARD — Sunday in the Odd Fellows hall, 27 friends and relatives of Frank Muck gathered to celebrate his 91st birthday. He was 91 on April 17.

Defense Is Speech Topic

SILVERTON — Clement Ackerman, department of economics, Reed college, will be guest speaker at the Wednesday night dinner meeting of the Silverton chamber of commerce. Dr. Ackerman will talk on "Financing Our Defense," S. P. Rose, Silverton chamber president, announced Monday.

The lack of sufficient tennis courts at Silverton will also be discussed by the civic committee.
