

Bar Members Have Session

DALLAS—Eugene Marsh, McMinnville attorney, was the principal speaker at a dinner meeting of the 12th judicial district bar association held here Wednesday.

Marsh, a member of the house of representatives at the recent state legislature, spoke on some of the laws passed at that session and their effect on the practice of attorneys in Oregon.

Eighteen lawyers were present from McMinnville, Dayton, Independence and Dallas. The May meeting will be held in McMinnville.

DALLAS—Two men from this county have been notified to report for induction under the selective service act on Thursday, April 24. They are Shelby August Hansen, West Salem, and Alton Leroy Scott, Independence.

DALLAS—Mr. and Mrs. John Cerny, who have been spending the past few years in the Philippine islands, arrived in Dallas Wednesday after visiting the past ten days in Seattle with Mr. Cerny's family.

Mr. and Mrs. Cerny are former Dallas residents. For many years he was employed at the Dallas Machine and Locomotive shops and Mrs. Cerny was a Dallas elementary teacher.
