Recovery Lacks Pep; Closing Quotes Under the Tops

NEW YORK, April 24 (AP)—Stocks generally continued the recovery push in Thursday's market but without quite the vigor of Wednesday's late upswing.

Gains ran to a point or so for favorites. Closing quotations in many instances were well under the tops, indicating some cashing in on the two-day advance.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks retained a net gain of 3 of a point at 39.8. Transfers of 485,000 compared with 474,500 the day before.

Tar Weed Seeds Prove Injurious To Livestock

Screenings which contain a considerable amount of tar weed seeds should not be fed to swine, horses or cattle, for the tar weed seed may poison these animals, reports the state department of agriculture animal division.

Hog losses due to this cause have been experienced from time to time in eastern Oregon wheat districts and also quite frequently in the Willamette valley. Screenings with tar weed seed come from grain that has been grown in the inland Empire region and some screening feeds come from the larger mills. They should not be fed in large amounts without other supplementary feeds.

Symptoms of the poisoning in swine and horses are due to destruction of liver tissue. Animals show a severe anemia, symptoms of jaundice and in general present a runty appearance.

Wool in Boston

BOSTON, April 24 (AP)—(USDA)—Scattered transactions in the Boston wool market were of fair volume today, but a large portion of the wool houses were receiving little demand. Fine Australian wools and the three-eighths and one-quarter blood grades of South American and domestics fleece wools were receiving the bulk of the demand. An occasional buyer showed interest in 12 months Texas wools at prices ranging $1.05-1.07 scoured basis, depending upon the character of individual lots. Some choice fine territory wool in original bags was sold at $1.03-1.05 scoured basis.

Price Trend Shows Rally

Strength of Stock Helps to Offset Minor Selling

CHICAGO, April 24 (AP)—The wheat market's recent retreat came to an abrupt halt Thursday as prices rallied about a cent a bushel.

With the pit well liquidated as a result of a four to six cents decline since April 5, selling was on a small scale and was more than offset by modest buying orders that came from previous short sellers or traders who were reinstating lines. Brokers said events in Greece apparently had been discounted during the past three weeks, and with stocks stronger, the lowest wheat prices in almost a month proved attentive to some interests.

May wheat, which sold up to 90 cents, led the upturn, with some buying attributed to consuming interests. The close was ¼-1½ higher than Wednesday, May 8 7¼-90, July 8 7¼-94.

Prospects of legislation requiring higher loan rates on the new wheat crop and indications of a slowing up of the movement of grain from loan positions were constructive market factors.

British interests bought more than 2,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat overnight and Spain was understood to have taken an additional 14,000,000 bushels of Argentine grain.

Grass Price Still Weak

Wholesale Mart Trade Shows Few Supplies; Onions Look Good

PORTLAND, April 24 (AP)—Scant supplies failed to speed up trading in Portland's east side wholesale market Thursday. There were lower prices on several commodities although an attempt was made to straighten out the extreme weakness in asparagus. Sales started mostly to $1.65-1.75 for 30 pound pyramids.

Radishes brought generally 17½ to 20 cents a dozen bunches. Spinach, in supply, brought as high as 40 cents an orange box, some sold to 30-35 cents. Rhubarb held its own at 30-35 cents for 15 and 50-60 cents for apple boxes. Green onions ranged from 30 to 35 cents per dozen bunches. Carrots continued at 50 cents a lug and $1 per 50-pound sack. Dry onions remained at $2.25-2.50 for top 50s.

Oregon Peas Due
PORTLAND, April 24 (AP)—Market circles here said Thursday that Oregon peas probably would appear within the next week or 10 days. Northwest lettuce also is expected shortly.

Dairy Trucks Need Cover

Creamery operators and dairymen who haul their own milk and cream should give careful attention to coverage of the truck used for this purpose, as the state department of agriculture dairy division warns it will require full compliance with the state regulation covering this matter.

Several types of coverage are practical. The department makes no specific requirement as to type of covering. Officials feel, however, that canvas alone is not sufficient and that a padded covering should be used if the truck does not have a permanent top. It is essential that covering afford protection from the sun's rays as well as from dust and dirt.
