Federal Grant Wanted for Development of Mine Near Scio

SCIO—Crown mine stockholders decided at a recent special meeting in Scio to apply for a federal loan of several thousand dollars to finance development work of the company's property in the Elkhorn mining district on the Little North Fork of the Santiam river, about 30 miles east of Scio. Local people have stock in the Crown concern, whose ores are reported strong in copper and gold.

Mayor and Mrs. J. A. Withers are home from an auto and train trip of several thousand miles. They visited Washington, DC, and points south and east.

SCIO—Contract by Trollinger Bros., Scio, to deliver 1000 cords of 4 1/2-foot balm timber to a Eugene company, is said to be in good condition. The timber is utilized by the Eugene concern for the manufacture of excelsior, which is marketed for the most part at San Francisco.

For 30 years the Trollingers have been contracting with the upriver plant for excelsior timber. Most of the crude material is felled on the North Santiam river near Scio, and deliveries are made during the summer. Some wood also is cut in the foothills east of Scio.

The wood is stored in drying sheds at Eugene for months or a year before processing. The Trollinger contracts provide employment and a payroll for many men.

Mrs. W. J. Chromy is visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Moore, North Powder.

Guests recently at the Rudolph Wesley home here included their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hastings, who were en route to Astoria for indefinite residence. They had been living at Eugene. Mrs. Hastings is the former Gloria Wesley.

Seafoam shrubbery, wild columbine and other native flowers are at least three weeks ahead of normal.

Scio Odd Fellows recently elected Dan Matthews, noble grand, to represent the local unit at grand lodge sessions at Baker May 21-22.

SCIO—Mr. and Mrs. Odell Young are expected home soon from their wedding trip. The former Lorene Trollinger became the wife of Mr. Young at the Scio Baptist parsonage April 19, the Rev. V. L. Loucks officiating.

Mrs. Young is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Trollinger. A few years ago she was graduated from high school here. She is a recent past noble grand of the Scio lodge of Rebekahs.

Her husband came from South Carolina two years ago and had been employed on the Trollinger farm for some time. He and his bride will make their home there for the present.

SCIO—Joan Beth is the name of the daughter at the Harry Wilkinson home in Lebanon. Mrs. Wilkinson, formerly Naomi Weinberg, is a recent graduate from Scio high school. Joan is their first child.

Wild strawberries are said to be maturing in the hill area a short distance north of Scio.

Elaborate plans are nearing completion for the seventh annual fat lamb show in Scio May 17. Stock will be in prime condition for exhibition purposes, sheep-grawers assert.

Six thousand turkey poulters were shipped this week from the Scio-Linn Hatchery to a Utah market.

SCIO—Scio lodge of Odd Fellows plans to send a delegation to the semi-annual district convention of the association slated at Crawfordsville Saturday afternoon and evening.

This will be the 122nd anniversary of the founding of the lodge and grand officers and many visiting members are expected in addition to 100 or more regular delegates.

Sam Cairnes, Crawfordsville, is chairman of the association and Avery Larkin, Alpine, secretary. Joe Schultz, Scio, is inside guardian.

Business sessions will be held in the afternoon, followed by dinner at 6 p.m. Open meeting with a program will take place at 7:30 p.m., and a closed session at 8:30 will conclude the party.

Initiatory degree is to be conferred by a fully-staffed team from the Corvallis lodge.
